A Sign of Winter.

At the annual meeting of the Forest City Curling Club to organize for the coming season there was a large and enthusiastic attendance. After winding up the old year's business, the election of officers for the ensuing year took place, with the following result: President, Lieut.-Col. John Macbeth vicepresident, G. H. Gillespie, jun.; secretarytreasurer, Robert Reid, jun. There was a large number of new names handed in to large number of new names handed in to the secretary, and altogether the coming season promises to be one of vactivity for curlers in this city.

Mrs. Sarah McLeod, widow of the late Called Away.

Mrs. Sarah McLeod, widow of the late James McLeod, formerly reeve of Nissouri, died Wednesday at the family residence, No.
510 Adelaide street. The deceased lady, who came to this city from Nissouri some 18 or 20 years ago, had been an invalid for a long time, and last winter she was thought to be on her deathbed. She rallied, however, but not sufficiently to be able to leave her room. But the end came quite suddenly, for Mrs. McLeod was engaged in knitting at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and died about six hours later.
She had long suffered from heart trouble,

Karoo's Wonderful Work.

Karoo has been working steadily for the past week in his marvelous cures of rheumatism which are performed publicly each evening on the private lot corner of King and Clarence streets. During the time he has been in London he has relieved six of our citzens from their rheumatic pains, the lasting nature of which has to be seen, although after what he accomplished in St. Catharines, Brantford and Hamilton, set aside all doubts as to the permanent nature of the cure. There are many in our city game between the Australians and the AnNew York team of eighteen was resumed this morning at 11 o'clock, with the antipodeans at the bat in the unfinished mning of yesterday. An extremely small crowd was present. The inning concluded with 216 runs scored. At the close of play yesterday the score was 105 runs for New Yorks and 33 runs for the Australians. The New Yorks went to the bat for their second and final inning after a few minutes' rest.

With two hours to play, the home team had to make 113 runs in order to save a single inning defeat. The match ended in a draw, greatly in favor of the Australians.
