A BIG SUCCESS

Last Night-Excellent

Programme.

The benefit concert given by the Symphony Orchestra in Bennett's Theater last night was a splendid success. The theater was crowded to capacity, and the concert was most enjoyable. The orchestra, under the leadership of Mr. W. O. Stevens, played excellently. The programme was a varied one, and included many popular as well as classic airs. The best classic number was the "Poet and Peasant" overture. The popular nusic made a hit with the crowd. Miss Jean Robb assisted the orchestra. She sang "Merrily I Roam' in splendid voice, and was forced to respond to an an American's description of Rubenstein plaing the piano. This was well done, In accordance with the provisions of the Liquor License Act, public notice is the responding to the Board of License Commissioners for the License "Come Back to Erin," in fine style, and 'Come Back to Erin,' in fine style, and

LANCASTER BILL UNDER DISCUSSION

DR. PINGEL-OFFICE, 444 WELLING-TON street, London. Electrical treat-ment of diseases of women a specialty.

Opposition Made in the Senate to the Passage of the Co-

> Ottawa, March 24 .- The Senate in committee yesterday discussed the Lancaster level crossing bill without making much progress.

Hon. Mr. Scott moved the second reading of the act regarding Operation Bill.

The bill was opposed by several senators, Senator Derbyshire declaring that Ontario did not want the bill, and expressing the hope that it would be killed in committee. Senator MacDonald, of British Columbia, gave notice of a resolution against the purchase of Government that there should be open competition for all purchases of over $1,000. J. J. MASON, B.A., M.D., SOUTHEAST corner Dundas and Colborne. Phone Canada and Newfoundland bays agreed to refer to a judicial committee of the privy council the boundary dispute on the Labrador coast.

Senator Cloran offered an amendment to the third reading of the Lancaster bill.

NO "GERMAN DANGER" SAYS VON BUELOW Berlin, March 24 .- Speaking in the Reichstag today Chancellor Von Buelow declared that he regretted his inability to give out the contents cf Emperor William's letter to Lord Tweedmouth, first lord of the British admiralty, which had created such a stir in England. He said this communication was purely private and Britain was absolutely without foundation. "The purely defensive character of our naval programme, in the face of the attempts to impute to us aggressive intentions and plans toward Great Britain, cannot be repeated too often or too sharply," the prince declared. "We desire to live at peace and in quiet with Great Britain and we therefore feel bitterly that some British publicist should continue to talk of the 'German danger' especially when Great Britain always has had a fleet several times stronger than ours while other nations also have more powerful nations than we. It would tend to the peace of both countries and the world if this controversy came to an end. It is satisfactory to know that the attempt made in England to create a false impression re-DR. G. H. ### APPEAL TO WASHINGTON

Kentucky Asks the Federal Government to Run Down Nightriders.

Lexington, March 25 .- The failure on the part of the state authorities to run down perpetrators of outrages committed by ight-riders," culminated yesterday in a direct appeal to the President of the United States for federal interference in Kentucky, in the form of a petition pre pared by leading men of Lexington and Central Kentucky, which is being put into irculation throughout this section. The petitioners are aware that the President can take no action unless the governor so requests, but they say it is their purpose by this means to bring the two executives together in the matter.
