UNIONIST LEADER MUST "MAKE GOOD"

Mr. Andrew Bonar Law Has Yet to Win His Spurs.

NEW FRANCHISE BILL

Franchisees Threaten to Resume Their Militant Methods.

London, Nov. 12.—The resignation of Arthur James Balfour and the selection of Andrew Bonar Law, the Glasgow ironmaster, to succeed to the leadership, serves to emphasize the differences between the Unionists and Conservatives. The preliminary conferences to choose a successor to Mr. Balfour developed a strong feeling of the Conservatives against Austen Chamberlain on account of his unrelentingness toward Mr. Balfour. Equal unrelentingness was shown toward Walter Long, the other prominent candidate, on the part of the Unionists. Both factions are now trying to show that Mr. Law is the ideal leader, but unprejudiced observers hold that he must win his spurs by a practical demonstration of his ability.

Mr. Law is comparatively unknown in the country, although he has been in Parliament eleven years. He early attracted the attention of his party, and in 1909 Lord Lansdowne designated him as one of the dreadnoughts of the Unionist party.

The fact that Mr. Law is a Canadian was commented on by most of the papers. Mr. Balfour, however, he had not a college education, and is a plain speaker, although a ready debater, particularly on matters affecting the tariff. He has a practical knowledge and ability to handle business questions.

Only Floor Leader Yet.

The election of a floor leader does not carry the leadership of the Unionist party, but Mr. Balfour, that honor is virtually transferred to Lord Lansdowne, the Unionist leader in the House of Lords, who would undoubtedly be called to form a ministry should the Liberals be ousted in the near future, which is not probable.

On the whole, the Unionists are glad to be rid of Balfour, who was out of touch with the sentiment of the party, and was not vigorous in fighting the Government; but his retirement at a time when the Government was undertaking a comprehensive programme, embracing home rule and general suffrage, created a sensation. The selection of Mr. Law is an indication of the most important questions to consider in the search for happiness and health.

The burning question to you is, "Are you getting out of your system?" If not, why not? No matter whether every organ and member of your body is in a sound state of health and strength, if your stomach is in any way disordered, you are going to be "yourself." You are going to be a worried, nervous, irritable, and unattractive individual, whose actions will reflect your condition inside, and people will naturally avoid you.

The world wants to smile and be cheerful, and unless you are cheerful and smiling, at least occasionally, you will have few friends, fewer opportunities, no success, and you will be defeated by dyspepsia and a bad stomach.

A good and thorough digestion has a quick, wonderful reaction upon the brain. You must have noticed it many times, for the brain and stomach are so intimately connected as a needle and its thread, one can hardly be used to add advantage without the other. If your stomach is slow and lazy in its action, your brain will be slow and lazy in its action. If your stomach is slow and lazy in its action, your brain will be slow and lazy in its action.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the relief and the cure. Why? Because, all stomach troubles arise from indigestion, and because one ingredient of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is able to thoroughly and completely digest 3,000 grains of any kind of food, and to break down the food into such a fine state of division that it can be absorbed by the system without having to use the stomach's strength. Science nowadays can digest food without having to use the stomach's strength. Science nowadays can digest food without having to use the stomach's strength.

BORDEN MOVES ACROSS FLOOR

The Seats for the New House Have Been Allocated.

HOW THEY ARE PAIRED

Seat Beside Sir Wilfrid is Vacant Waiting Arrival of Geo. Graham.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 12.—The whips have arranged the seating of the House of Commons. Mr. Borden, of course, occupies the Premier's seat, which has been filled by Sir John A. Macdonald, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and his other predecessors. To his right will sit Mr. Foster, the senior Privy Councillor of the new Government. The pair of seats to Mr. Borden's left will be occupied by Mr. Monk, who will sit in Mr. Fielding's former seat, and Mr. White, the finance minister.

Mr. Rogers and Mr. Cechrane will sit to the right of Mr. Borden, in the seats formerly occupied by Sir Frederick Borden and Mr. Pugsley. Further along the front row are Mr. Pelletier and the deputy speaker, Mr. Blomfield.

In the second row, Mr. Doherty sits just behind the Prime Minister, his desk-mate being Dr. Reid. The other ministerial desk-mates are Mr. Burdell and Mr. Crothers, who are behind Mr. White and Mr. Monk, and Mr. Hazen and Col. Hughes, who are behind Mr. Rogers and Mr. Cechrane.

In the third row are Mr. Kemp and Mr. Perley, and Mr. Nantel and Dr. Roche.

The Conservative ministerial front-benchers are Mr. Haggart, Mr. Henderson, Mr. Houghton, Mr. Macdonald, and Mr. F. R. Lator, on the Speaker's right. In the second row are Mr. H. B. Ames and Mr. Andrew Broder.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier crosses the floor to the seat which Mr. Borden occupied so long and which he himself occupied prior to 1906. The place next him has been left vacant. To his left are Mr. Pugsley and Mr. Lemieux, who are paired. Other Liberal front-benchers are Mr. Murphy and Mr. Oliver, Mr. March, Mr. D. Laforune, Mr. Emmerson, Dr. Beland, Mr. Jacques Bureau, Mr. E. M. Macdonald, Mr. Bicknell, and Mr. W. A. Charlton.

Mr. Pardee sits behind Sir Wilfrid Laurier, with Mr. Hugh Guthrie as his companion; Grace McEnnis, A. K. Maclean, Mr. German, who was elected by acclamation as an anti-reciprocity Liberal, is given a permanent place on the House of Commons, as is Mr. Clarke, of South Essex.

It is generally surmised that the vacant seat beside Sir Wilfrid is reserved for the arrival of George P. Graham, who is understood to be contesting South Renfrew in the near future.

Medical Student MAY LOSE EYE SIGHT

Mr. R. McCauley Seriously Injured While Attending Theatre Thursday Night.

Mr. R. McCauley, a student at the Western Medical College, may lose the sight of his right eye as a result of one of the various accidents that have befallen him since he came to the city. He was injured while attending a performance of "Naughty Marietta" at the Grand on Thursday night last.

Although suffering from a severe headache, he went to the theatre, and while watching the performance, he was suddenly struck by a falling object, which hit him on the forehead. He was taken to the hospital, where he is now lying, and his condition is serious.

GO INTO POLITICS ADVISES PROFESSOR

Students Should Enter as Canadians Without Party Affiliation.

Montreal, Nov. 11.—That all students should go in for politics was the statement made by Professor Leacock, of McGill University, while addressing the students of the "First Steps in Politics" course. He warned them against becoming affiliated with any party, either Conservative or Liberal, and urged them to enter the field as Canadians first, and last of all the time.

Canada has any amount of brains, and any amount of physical assets, but what she lacks just at present is that quality which is called "character." It is this, he said, which has enabled them to leave behind a legacy of glory, and it is this which she must now strive to regain.

In order to get the best out of college life, he said, students must not be too busy with their studies to neglect their physical and mental health. They must also be equally as important as the development of the mind. They must be physically fit, and morally to become a higher type of citizen.

What is a perfect food?

IT'S the food that develops both tissue and energy in the right proportions. And science says the right proportions are  $5\frac{1}{2}$  to 1.

Why do babies thrive on milk?

Because milk is the perfect food. It furnishes  $5\frac{1}{2}$  parts energy to 1 part tissue.

Why do both youngsters and grown-ups thrive on porridge?

Because it also furnishes almost exactly  $5\frac{1}{2}$  parts energy to 1 part tissue. And it is about the only food besides milk that is practically perfect.

But use the right kind of Oats for your porridge.

Tillson's Rolled Oats make porridge that is porridge.

Not a flake broken. That means porridge that is not a sticky, jellied mass, but inviting and delicious.

Every flake rolled so thin that Tillson's cooks perfectly in 15 minutes—no more.

AMERICANS HELD AS GERMAN SPIES

Two Brothers From the United States Kept in Prison in Italy for Nine Days.

Pandora, Ohio, Nov. 11.—Suspected by officers of the Italian Government of being German spies, arrested and held in a filthy prison for nine days without being permitted to appeal to American consuls was the experience of the Rev. Albert Schumacher, and his brother, Samuel Schumacher, a merchant of Pandora.

The brothers have just returned and have reported the case to the Secretary of State. He has ordered several American consuls in Italy to conduct an investigation.

The Schumacher brothers left Venice on June 8 for Bozen, Austria. They planned to tramp over the Dolomite Mountains, and carried only light equipment. Unfortunately, they had sent their passports with their baggage to Bozen. The brothers left the train at Feltre and started on the 60-mile hike over the mountains, in knapsacks they carried a camera, films and medicine. They had passed through the village of Fonzaso when they were stopped by an officer and two soldiers. The Rev. Mr. Schumacher told the truth about their passports, but his explanation was not accepted. The officer searched them, and the camera and the fact that the brothers spoke German excited the officer's suspicions.

The travellers were arrested and spent the night in a small cell, with only a dirty strip of carpet for a bed. The officials took all of their personal belongings, including their money. They were kept in prison nine days.
