SOUTH AFRICAN LABORITES CONFIDENT OF VICTORY

GENERAL ELECTION CAMPAIGN OPENS IN SOUTH AFRICA

Tielman Roos Predicts an Easy Victory For Nationalist-Labor Party.

Associated Press Despatch.

Johannesburg, South Africa, April 14.—The South African general elec tion campaign opened here last night when Col. Cresswell, Labor leader, and Tielman Roos, Nationalist leader in the Transvaal, addressed an enorous and enthusiastic meeting.

Colonel Cresswell declared that the Nationalist-Labor alliance was not a act of parties, but a people's pact. Tielman Roos, amid cheers, guar-inteed that the Nationalists would poll 100 per cent strong in the conencies where Labor candidates were standing.

He declared that nobody need have dightest fear that the advent of possible would be done to increase the civilized white labor, not only in the mining industry, but in all the dustries. The meeting unanimou passed a resolution to secure the fu-ture of the people of South Africa by eing that every Labor and Na-onalist candidate should be elected.

THE GOVERNMENT LOAN FORMS ARE IN DEMAND

G.W.V.A. Secretary Has Been Unable To Accommodate Applicants.

There is still a demand for the apcation forms whereby British subts in Great Britain may be ought to this country on loans proought to this country on loans proled by the government, according ing with such people.

"You are a hard-working man. Why
"I must husband my resources,
"I must husband my resources, vrite to Ottawa for more. Through the various branches of e G. W. V. A., these applications distributed, and the number of ple in London taking advantage of opinion of Mr. Turner. is been unable to supply those who ers during the past week, these peo-

GAME SANCTUARY LAND

William Griffith Allows Association To Use Woods For Purpose.

President David McEwen of the Byron Game Protective Association announces that Wm. Griffith has indly consented to allow his 100 acres of bush, a short distance west of Byron, to be used as a game sanc-Mr. Griffith's woods are made up principally of second-growth timber, and will make an ideal game preserve, members of the association undertaken the job of protecting the sanctuary, the bush being placed entirely in their hands.

E. W. BEATTY WILL SPEAK AT WINDSOR TOMORROW

E. W. Beatty, president of the C. some time tomorrow on his way to Windsor, where he will address the there he will go to Toronto, where he will preside at a meeting of the Colonel Morrontario District Transportation Association, to be held in that on Saturday.

et before the firemen are issued their summer uniforms, Chief Aitken may adhere to the plea put forward by several of the department that their summer outlits be given this Today the men found the winter clothing anything but comfortable, due to the heat

The uniforms are already in the chief's office, and it is likely that he will comply with the request.

JOHN GILLEAN ILL.

John Gillean, local C. N. R. depot master, has been confined to his home through illness for the past week. Mr. Gillean recently returned from a visit south and was thought to have recovered his health. However he had vas forced to relinquish his duties

CLEANUP IS EXPECTED. The annual cleanup of the local N. R. yards was started today when a work train and a gang of men commenced operations in the east end yards. This will be completed within a few days.

"HEART ATTACK" IS BLAMED BY COMBATANTS FOR ROW

British minister of agriculture, who has intimated that the Labor government might find it necessary to re

H. H. ASQUITH MAY

BE NEXT MASTER

Return to Balliol

College.

By HENRY SOMERVILLE.

London, April 14.-Arthur Lione

When the last was born, a friend

He did husband them to the under-graduates of Balliol and other colleges. One married the son of Professor Wrong of Toronto, anothe ther of Lord Younger. He has r

WINDSOR SUFFERS

Involving $2,000 Worth of Goods.

urday, involving the theft of goods valued at $2,000, are baffling city police. The robberies were evidently

Four Men Are Fined and Two Women Remanded For Week.

TALE UNFOLDED

Domestic Tribulations Poured Forth to Magistrate Graydon.

A battle on Dundas street in which Mrs. William Fulton was knocked down by a mysterious stranger culminated in the arrest of six perse being drunk and three with disorderly

William Coyne, Florence Fulton, Mrs. Agne. Reidy, William Fulton and William Payne. Mrs. Reidy, who is well known to the police, was remanded with Mrs. Fulton for a week in police court this morning, after telling the court one of the heart-rending sob stories heard in recent times ist and Labor leaders realized that if the mining industry were injured the whole country would suffer.

While seeing that nothing would be done to cripple the South African industries, Tielman Roos said, the allied parties hoped that everything possible would be done to increase the civilized with the country was incomediately conduct was in the country was in the country was incomediately conduct was in "Please, Mr. Graydon, don't take Heart oBthered Her.

"I was stricken with me heart," she sobbed when the court asked her to explain her conduct in the house rented by William Payne, "You see," she added, "me daughter was in the hospital with a serious peration. Me son was in Detroit last Former British Premier May nonth with a serious operation. One f me daughter's is blind, you know." Mrs. Reidy then recounted her nanifold domestic tribulations, statng that her children were all in deserate straits from operations, finan-ial difficulties, etc.

Police found Mrs. Fulton and her husband in an intoxicated condition on the street yesterday. Later they visited the house of William Payne and arrested four people, who, with the Fultons, were making merry a was the most picturesque of the pres-Smith, of Balliol, who has just died. half-hour before. Payne, who lives at 73 Waterloo street, blamed the uproar on the Fultons, who rented part of the house. as a teacher, as a wit, and as father of seven daughters Payne was very nervous when he gave evidence in court. The magistrate reprimanded him for associatongstuded him, saying: "Your friends alone? They always get you was the master's characteristic reply.

Mysterious Stranger.

Mrs. Fulton said she and her husband had gone into a drug store, when a mysterious man came in and the drug store, when a mysterious man came in and the drug store, third Barrington Ward, K. C., and insulted her. Then he grabbed her by the hair, threw her in the gutter

There is much speculation as by the hair, threw her in the gutter and kicked her. She did not know who the gentleman was.

There is much speculation as to who will be the new master of Balliol. It is considered a position that Broken hass and signs of great dis- There is also support of Sir R.

der were seen in the place, John Brown, William Coyne, on and Payne were fined $10 and lived an academic life and it is conton and Payne were fined $10 and costs each, and the two women were remanded to jail for a week. After they were escorted to the cells the court heard loud talking and screaming. Apparently the two prisoners were voicing their objections to the constables when the latter put them in the cells.

FREIGHT CARS ASSEMBLED FOR HANDLING OF ORE

With the view that navigation at Point Edward will open within a reasonable time, all ore cars of the C. N. R. have been shipped to the type of the city where they will be kept tunnel city, where they will be kept on siding until navigation opens. This has been done for several weeks now throughout the entire division and close to 300 cars have been assembled for use in hauling ore.

When the ore trains commence, a number of crews at the present time house robberies in Windsor late Saton the spare list will be given steady

FORMER LONDON OFFICER
PASSES AWAY IN WEST

Word has just been received at the Salvation Army headquarters that Colonel Morris, a former London resident, passed away in Winnipeg on Saturday.

Some years ago Colonel Morris police. The robberies were evidently perpetrated by an organized band, who were aware of the absence of the families and the value of the goods inside the houses. Houses entered were those of Nathan Kaplan and Malcolm Leach. Police have been unable to find any trace of the burglars. The houses were ransacked from too to bottom. Furs, clothing and jewelry valued at $2,000 are missing.

Some years ago Colonel Morris jewelry valued at $2,000 are missing. W. J. Anderson, district freight agent for the C. P. R., will attend the meeting.

Some years ago Colonel Morris the work of the Army in London, and following his term of office here was moved to Winnipeg, where he held the position of chief secretary for a number of years. He had just received notice of an appointment in Montreal, and was under instructions to proceed the position of an appointment in Montreal, and was under instructions to proceed the position of an appointment in Montreal, and was under instructions to proceed the position of an appointment in Montreal, and was under instructions to proceed the position of an appointment in Montreal, and was under instructions to proceed the position of an appointment in Montreal, and was under instructions to proceed the position of an appointment in Montreal, and was under instructions to proceed the position of an appointment in Montreal, and was under instance. nder instructions to proceed piled in the jail yard, jail officials there when death intervened.

the most popular business girl in London

SALES TAX CUT HAS NO DIRECT PRICE EFFECT

Prices Will Show Gradual Downward Tendency.

WORK IS SIMPLIFIED

ous tariff reductions proposed by Hon. Mr. Robb in his budget speech will affect living costs very slightly. ticipated in wholesale prices, but it price of goods listed among items lifted will show any appreciable This is the opinion of representative wholesalers and retailers. William Turnbull, president of the Wholesale Grocers' Association of Ontario, expects prices to average downward, but the decrease will be almost negligible in the majority of more the consumer will probably get many necessities a bit cheaper, but the difference will be so small it will ass almost unnoticed."

Retailers stated the one per cent difference in the sales tax will not have any definite bearing on the cost of goods to the public. A slight de-cline is expected in boots and shoes, daughters will be a great resource to out clothing will remain practically the same.

Church News

Representatives of the local Anglican Young People's Associations Younger, an appeal judge and a bro- Picnics," held formerly

Holy Week is to be observed at TWO BIG ROBBERIES charge. Mr. Winder gave the Grigger led a discussion on Scotland.

Mrs Mara of 439 Woodman avenue will be the hostess on Thursday of this week for an afternoon tea, held

The Ladies' Aid of the Grace Methodist Church at Ealing have arranged to hold an apron shower next Thursday evening at the parsonage at 174 East street. A short program is being prepared for the occasion.

GOOD FRIDAY SERVICES.

Avenue churches are combining with the First Methodist Church in the service there, and Rev. J. E. Chap-man, pastor of Empress Avenue Church is to deliver a sermon.

NEW FREIGHT SCHEDULE GOES INTO EFFECT APR. 25

Mrs. W. G. Webster, wife of a well-known city contractor who sev-

MATRICULATION STANDARD LOWER FOR THIS YEAR

Merchants Believe Wholesale Universities Will Return to 1922 Requirements at Coming Examination.

HONORS NOT NEEDED

ford Bring Grievances to Police Court.

misunderstanding between liam Sanford caused an unnecessary

McBride was promised his wages unreasonable manner.

Issued by Railway Around

April 27.

gaged in re-arranging the time table for the past few weeks, completing the work only a few days ago.

Officials report that both passenger and freight traffic has shown a steady increase and are looking forward to the heaviest Easter business in a number of years. Two specials are being run during Easter week-end.

C. N. R. SHOPMEN WILL

London Delegates To Give an Account of Meetings in Labor Temple Tonight.

not be asked to do so.

The high matriculation standard that was raised last year, and called for honors in four of the twelve ma triculation examination papers, fo entrance into the universities of Ontario, has been lowered to the old basis of straight pass matriculation. This means that a student wishing from which the sales tax has been This is the standard that was in efuntil last year, when it was raised to honors or seventy-five per cent in four papers and fifty per cent in the remaining eight. In a statement just issued by the Simplified bookkeeping, resulting from the change of the sales tax from J. McBride and William Sansix to five per cent, is one feature who the gentleman was.

The whole story was told in a disjointed manner, and no one seemed able to give a plausible explanation of the affair. The police invaded the Payne abode when they heard profane language and much noise. That is all they could tell of the rumpus.

Broken was and signs of great dis n the Y. M. C. A. to make arrange-ments for the annual spring picnic, completion of the job. He was paid ments for the annual spring picnic, which is to be held May 1, under the which is to be held Council of the completion of the job. He was purple with the state of the Local Council of the completion of the job. He was purple state of the s A., is directing the program services each evening this week at 8 o'clock. On Good Friday there will be an additional service at 10:30 in the morning, and at the service in Church, will give Stainer's "Cruci-fixion." The soloists will be A. L. Green, tenor, and Frank Lawson, baritone. Mrs. W. Barrows will also ing "He Was Destined." The A. Y. of the services tonight, and Mr. Allen, a Huron College student, is to

HOLY WEEK

GOLDEN RULE CLUB.

The regular meeting of the Senio Golden Rule Club of the Wellington Street Methodist Church was held recently, with Ethel Cameron in bers an interesting talk on "Persona Evangelism." At the junior club meeting, held at the same time, Elsie under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid APRON SHOWER.

CENTENNIAL L. A.

Good Friday services are being observed jointly by the Methodist churches of the city at 11 a.m. on that day. Colborne Street Methodist, Robinson Memorial and Empress

The summer freight schedule for the C. P. R. will go in effect on April 25th, officials of the road expect, pending weather conditions, the first freigfiht boat will leave Port Mac-Nicol on that date. C. P. R. boats will leave this point every day, except Friday and Sunday. All freight for shipment by water will be subject to delay, hrough changes in the weather.

MRS. WEBSTER RECOVERS.

Jerrie Dean Advises Giris To Give Up Idea of Movies; Stardom Matter of Luck

Understudy of Beloved Mary Pickford Arrives in London.

STRIKING RESEMBLANCE

Lure of the Screen Brings Thousands to California Every Year.

Mary Pickford, and one of Mack Sennett's original bathing beauties, to enter the university will try twelve papers and will be required to obtain fifty per cent on each one. from Hollywood and give up any amfrom Hollywood and give up any am bition they may have to become famous movie stars.

Miss Dean is appearing in perso at Loew's theatre this week. University of Toronto, it is pointed bears a striking resemblance to that the increased requirements Mary Pickford. In an interview the for admission to the pass course in the Facutly of Arts adopted in 1921 were based on what was believed to lines.

In common with other merchants, Mr. Turnbull expressed the hope that further sales tax and tariff changes will not be put into operation for some years. Every budget of the past four years has been radically different from the year preceding. This has caused apprehension and uncertainty in business.

"It is to be hoped the government is through making changes," Mr. Turnbull said, "The new arrangements appear to be satisfactory, and it is to be hoped they will remain it is to be hoped they will remain more or less permanent, "Of course, we do not know yet whether the budget proposals will materialize. Just now wholesalers are worrying as to whether they will receive a rebate to a sales taxes paid on goods stocked before the budget announcements. It is unlikely the announcements. It is unlikely the government will allew a rebate.

be a normal course of study for sectional trevidence submitted from certain evidence submitted from the requirements from certain evidence submitted from the requirements from certain evidence submitted from the vidence submitted from the vallence submitted from the vidence submitted for the average student. In view of this the universities have determined to return to the session of 1922-1923 had a part in screen achievement, that Miss Deans advises young girls against joining the rank and file of Hollywood. Nine times of ten thoose who come to the movie colony imbuted with thoughts of rapid star-ferity from the twelve examintion papers. It will become effective for Arts 1924-25.

The letter further states that the procedure followed the unanimous decision of the representatives of the University of Toronto, The University of Western Ontario, Queen's to take Mary Pickford's place in dangerous roles. Once she dived 65 feet into the ocean when Mary refused to take the risk in the picture she wa be a normal course of study for sec-ondary schools. The requirements from certain evidence submitted "brains, beauty and luck."

It is because luck plays such a big secondary studies in his home town. of Annette Kellerman

"Big Money" Sham. COURT TAKES NO ACTION The alleged "big money" xtras at Hollywood is a sham, Miss Dean says. Extras get on an evar-IN PRIVATE SQUABBLE

This diminutive movie actress was ntimately acquainted with Ben Turpin and Al Christie. Mr. Christie was a London boy who made millions with his Christie comedies.

"When mothers come to me with when mothers come to the when the when mothers come to the when mothers the when mothers believes her youngster them," Miss Dean said. "Almost every mother believes her youngster the when the when the when excellence.

Among today's guests, the Rotatian blow them Dr. George Kirby of Calgary, principal of the Mount them Dr. George Kirby of Calgary tiff, however, brought the case to court to expedite payment of the every mother believes her youngster santord said he would hand over the $15 to McBride tomorrow. The court therefore decided not to take any action in the squabble, intimating that McBride was too officious in pressing for the money in such an unreasonable manner.

would make Jackie Coogan look like a novice. As a matter of fact, most screen celebrities accomplish big things mainly through luck. Luck tor was "going strong" in Calgary and was exceptionally well liked.

As a rule stars are very extrava-The defendant declared he would gant with their earnings, Miss Dean not pay the costs of the action and added. The Pickford-Fairbanks com-bination has made millions, but the the magistrate agreed that he should majority of stars spend their huge salaries as fast as they get them. Mary Pickford is one of the mos charming, unaffected and altogethe likeable woman in the world. She cts in her home just as she does n the screen. Her nature is one of TO NATIONAL SERVICE repressible joy and youth. Noth-ng daunts her childish temperament nd perfect equanimity.

Miss Dean is the sister of Pris Revised Timetables Will Be cilla Dean. She regards moving picture work as a profession, re-quiring years of study to master. One may possess ability and beauty -all the essentials, in fact, to beome a great success-but one must Several new trains will be added to the London division of the C. N. first convince some influential director of these qualities before a chance to display them is given. "Pull" is cine, R., including passenger and freight, with the publishing of the new time great thing to have in starting out table on April 27, according to in-formation received at the divisional offices today. Officials have been en-Mary Pickford's understudy is a pure blonde, with a wealth of flaxon hair, said to be insured for $100,000. She likes to dress in coats of many colors. This morning she wore new spring hat of brilliant hues and er blue dress, showing large splashes of vellow and gold, gave a singu

SLIM WILLIAMS QUIET extra coaches will be added to ON TRIP TO KINGSTON

HEAR CONVENTION NEWS Has High Hopes He Will Not End His Days in Canadian Prison.

High Constable Wharton of Middlesex County and Governor Dawson of the county jail arrived in the city last night after delivering "Slim" Local shopmen of the C. N. R. will Williams to the warden of Kingston meet tonight in the Labor Temple to hear the reports of the London delegates to the recent convention of Division Np. 4 of the American Federation of Labor, held in Montreal.

As the London short is one of the Williams was quite quiet during the trip and had little to say, the officers stated. The Melbourne bank robber, however, had high hopes that he would not end his days behind As the London shop is one of the strong union centers of the division, their opinions on the resolutions and prison bars. He does not think he will have to spend the remainder of their opinions on the resolutions are amendments to the working hours and wages will be discussed. While it was suggested that the men be paid in cash every two weeks, the London men are satisfied with the present than when he was brought from Kingston last February by County Constables Guest and Gumb to stand well-known city contractor who several weeks ago was in a serious condition in St. Joseph's Hospital and for whose recovery little hope was held, was able to leave the hospital hope will be present.

men are satisfied with the problem of the problem of the problem of the C.N. R. shopmen in Canada, and beld, was able to leave the hospital paniel Menzies, local representative, will be present.

Kingston last repruary by county to constable Guest and Gumb to stand trial for murder in connection with the death of Russell Campbell at Melbourne in April, 1921.

Safety Methods To Be Discussed

Canadian Press Despatch. Toronto, April 14. — Measures for prevention of accidents in factory and on highway will be fully discussed here tomorrow at the sessions of the Canadian Na-tional Safety League and the Ontario safety League. Sir John M. Gibson will preside. Among the prominent speakers will be Rev. Canon H. J. Cody and Hon. James Murdock, minister of labor. latter will address the gathering on "Safety in Traffic and In

IT'S MUSIC DAY AT ROTARY CLUB:

A. D. Jordan Is Convener of Activities at Noon-Time Luncheon.

GUEST FROM CALGARY

The periodical musical program

ame around again today in the those about them, so that when Rotary Club calendar. Under the numbers of a very high order were the Rotarians keenly relished. Mr. air from "Martha," and this was followed by selections from "II Traviata" and "Rigoletto" by instru-Dean says. Extras get on an evarage of three dollars a day. Sometimes they get five dollars.

"Years ago Gloria Swanson and I played for Mack Sennett in his bathing girl scenes," Miss Dean said. "None of us expected Gloria would make such a name for herself. Bebe Daniels and many other now famous stars played with us."

Miss Dean believes Mary Pickford to be the finest screen actress in the world. Next to her comes Nazimova. The best male actor, in her opinion, is Thomas Meighan.

Traviata and Rigoleto S, Messrs, Messrs, desenway, Roberts and Jordan, with messrs and Jordan, w entire program was one which pleased the Rotarians mightily, and as well as encoring each number, the members, through the president, Dean Sherwood Fox, congratulated Mr. Jordan on having arranged a program of such excellence.

Splendid Program Is Being Pre-

The program, which will be of much interest to those engaged in the practice of or the study of medi-will be followed by an address to A luncheon will also be given at the Tecumseh House.

PREVENTORIUM DOING SPLENDID WORK AT BYRON

Checks Inroads of Tuberculosis in Children Exposed to the Disease.

NO ACTIVE CASES

Dr. F. H. Pratten, medical superntendent of the Alexandra Sanatorium at Byron, in his annual repor on the work being done at Byron build up the children who were in abling them by treatment and adtuberculosis in after life. He pointed out that 306 children have been inception. In his report he says:

he vast majority of those who dis childhood, very often by those who re nearest and dearest to them in heir own homes. The child in inti nate contact with an open case of berculosis for any length of time

The London Health Association is endeavoring, in many ways, to pro-tect the children of London from this dreadful disease. In the first place an effort is made to place every open or infectious case of tuberculosis a sanatorium for treatment. that the danger of infection, to those at home, is removed. During the stay in the sanatorium, patients are taught the proper care of themselves and return to the home, the danger minimized. When an open direction of Rotarian A. D. Jordan, found in one of our city homes, an effort is made through the health nurses and chest clinic to operatic flavor to the program, which especially the children, examined. If return to the clinic periodically, are Fred Lappin's first song, the open-given the best possible advice and ing number of the program, was an where possible, the children if not

Craig, C. Webster, T. Roberts, H

MISS ELLEN MOHAN.

Word was received in the city to-Sunday of Miss Ellen Mohan ago and was well known throughout Chatham. Mrs. M. Mohan of 245 Pall Mall street, city, is a sister-Miss Mohan is a sister of the late Philip Mohan who at one time conducted a business in this city.

The remains will be brought to this city on Tuesday and interment made in St. Peter's Cemetery

FREDERICK H. SMITH.

The funeral of Frederick H. Smith etired traveller, who died at his home 196 Central avenue, Friday evening in his 64th year, was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from his residence to Woodland Cemetery. Services were held at 2:30 p.m., by Rev. At the next general session of the Western Academy of Medicine, to be held April 17 at the Medical School auditorium, Dr. John D. Comrie, M.A., B. Sc., M.D., professor in medicine, University of Edinburgh, will be present.

The program, which will be practically and the practical session of the Medical School auditorium, Dr. John D. Comrie, M.A., B. Sc., M.D., professor in medicine, University of Edinburgh, will be present.

The program, which will be practically and the practical session of the Medical School auditorium, Dr. John D. Comrie, M.A., B. Sc., M.D., professor in medicine, University of Edinburgh, will be present.

Mary, John Edward and Mary, all The funeral will be held on Wednesday at 2 p.m. from her residence to Woodland Cemetery. The Rev. Jefferies will officiate.

London Advertiser Marbles and Jacks For Canadian Championship "MARBLES" for Boys-"JACKS" for Girls ENTRY FORM

Open to boys and girls in primary schools (not in collegiates or secondary schools) from 9 to 13 years of age, inclusive. They can be 9, 10, 11, 12 or 13 years old to compete. If you were 9 by March 1, 1924, and if you will not be 14 until May 1, 1924, you may enter. No entry fee, no charges of any kind. Fill in this application and send to Marbles and Jacks Editor, London

Boy's Name for "Marbles" or Girls' Name for "Jacks" Age Date of Birth (Day, month and year) Parent's signature, certifying the above information to be correct

Who is the Most Popular

London Business Girl?

GIRLS WHO ARE ELIGIBLE.

is eligible. She may be nominated by friends or by herself. All names must be given in writing to Manager Fred Jackson of Loew's Theatre.

$100 IN PRIZES.

vill receive fifty dollars; the second and third on the list, twenty-five

HOW TO VOTE. Pallot forms will be given away at every performance in Loew's Theatre until Saturday, April 26. During the week of April 28 all ballots are to be deposited in the ballot boxes at the theatre, and a special film will be shown every day giving glimpses of London girls in offices, stores

Results of the voting will be announced on Wednesday, May 7.

Loew's Theatre and The Advertiser want to choose by public ballot

Any girl, of any age, employed in office, factory or store in London

The Advertiser is offering $100 in cash prizes. The most popular girl