Her Money to Be Manipulated from Peter's Pocket into that of Paul.

CAIRO, Sept. 19 .- In accordance with the decision of Monday's conference regarding the Egyptian finances, in which Northbrook, Sir Evelyn Baring, Nubar Pacha and others took part, the ministry of finance yesterday gave orders that the evenues assigned to the Caisse de la Dette Publique for the redemption of the milied debt should be temporarily paid into the Egyptian treasury. The purpose is to enable the treasury to pay current expenses of government and the tribute to Turkey.

Turkey. PARIS, Sept. 19.—The action of the Egyptian finance ministry in diverting the-revenue assigned to the caises to the Egyp-tian treasury, has created a profound sen-sation. The newspapers vigorously de-nonnee the policy of England. Le Paris summons the powers to protest against such an audacious violation of the interna-tional law of liquidation.

In a mournful, subdued key the man asked if the reporter could direct him to an hotel. He directed him to several, but none seemed to suit the mournful individual, who gloomily shook his head at each new name. "Good gracious!" said the now irritated man of news, "what sort of place do you want, and who are you, anyhow "?" Mournfully and distinctly the sorrowful individual replied, "I am a farmer, but I ain't such a darnation fule as to be cheated out of more than twenty-five cents for a bed for the night and my breakfast." Mournfully, also, the farmer was informed that he could not be accommodated at that figure in the city, but that if he would keep on wavering a little longer he would no doubt get both bed and breakfast, though of a poor quality, for the magnifi-cent sum of-nothing ! Mat. Thews and Samuel Mouds, two boys, were fighting on Bay street yester boys, were fighting on Bay street yester-day afternoon, when Mouds, finding that he was getting the worst of the affray, drew an ugly-looking pen-knife from his pocket and stabbed Thews in the right arm near the shoulder, and again in the left arm just above the wrist. Although there was a large crowd of bystanders, no one attempted to detain Mouds, and he ran away. Thews was taken home, where a doctor attended him. He is at present very weak, as he lost a great deal of blood, but will eventually recover. In another column will be found the ad-vertisement of Prof. D. W. Moody, 195 Church street. As will be seen, he has opened a school for drees cutting and dressmaking on a new principle, and from the success acchieved by him in Cincin-nati and throughout the United States, where he is now convergence a large basinati and throughout the United States, where he is now carrying on a large busi-ness, it is very probable he will be highly successful in Toronto. Young ladies have now a chance of learning this new and valuable system at a very low price. Mr. Moody will be glad to give any informa-tion on the subject to the interested.
