THE AFGHAN AGREEMENT

MR. GLADSTONE'S VIEWS ENDORSEL BY RUSSIA.

The Ownership of the Society Islands Germany and England Arriving at a Definite Understanding. LONDON, March 16.-In the common this afternoon Mr. Gladstone, answering several interrogatories concerning the exact nature of the announced agreement with Russia, said England and Russia had agreed that no further advances should be made in Afghanistan. The statement of this agreement, the premier admitted, was based on an interchange of communications between Russia and England. The latest ee nmunication on the subject was March 7, but to obviate any possible misunder-standing Earl Granville wired his (Mr. atanding Earl Granville wired his (Mr. Gladstone's) exact words to Sir Edward Thornton on Saturday, asking him to ascertain whether or not the Russianprime minister endorsed as correct the statement by Mr. Gladstone of the agreement reached with Russia. As yet no reply has been received. Mr. Gladstone said there had been no time to obtain the assent of the ameer to the terms of the arrangement. He asserted that there was no doubt as to the substance of the announced arrangements.

The marquis of Hartington said the Russians occupy Katana and Akrabat, and the Afghans still occupy Penjdeh. He refused on the ground of public policy to make any further disclosures.

Lord Fitzmaurice denied the alleged scupation of Raiatea, one of the Society (South Pacific) islands by the French. A controversy between the two governments (South Facific) islands by the French. A controversy between the two governments concerning their respective rights on the island was still in amicable progress. In regard to the Cameroons difficulty the undersecretary said negotiations were still pending between England and Germany for a friendly settlement. The negotiations embraced a general scheme for the adjustment of all the questions in dispute between braced a general scheme for the adjustment of all the questions in dispute between England and Germany in regard to their respective colonial claims in the entire region of Africa and South Pacific on the region of Africa and South Pacine on the basis of mutual concessions.

The government subsequently announced that a telegram had been received from St. Petersburg fully confirming Mr. Gladstone's view of the Anglo Russian arrangement regarding the outposts on the Russon Afghan frontier.

Sir Frederick Milner gave notice that he module whether or not the government.

Brassey moving the navy esti-mates said the total strength of the navy mates said the total strength of the navy including reserves and pensioners was $6,000 men. The number on the active list was 57,000, which would probably be increased this year to 68,000. In the event of war the admiralty had other and immense resources in the merchant service. He assured the house that his department was working its hardest on additionate the resources.

The Statement Disappointing. LONDON, Merch 16 .- Mr. Gladstone's statement regarding the arrangement be-tween England and Russia greatly disappointed the members of parliament. The marquis of Salisbury and Sir Stafford Northcote will to-morrow insist upon the government explaining the nature of the arrangement. It is officially stated that Sir Edward Thornton asked M. De Giers to exchange a formal agreement that there should be no further advance of the outposts and that De Giers requested the adhesion of the ameer of Afghanistan before pledging Russia.

They left the post standing, at the same time giving notice that several notorious characters in the neighborhood would be treated the same as Dayton if they do not at once cease their depredations.

The Central American Confederation. La Libertad, San Salvador, March 16-Barrios' decree proclaiming the confedera-tion of Central America was issued Feb. 28, but kept secret until March 6, when its publication created the greatest indignation. The congress of San Salvador immediately authorized the government to employ all possible means for defence of the country, which it proclaimed in a state of siege. On account of the attitude of San Salvador, which has 5000 troops on the frontier and plenty of artillery, and also because of the action of Mexico in advancing her forces towards Guatemala, the excitement is subsiding. The people of San Salvador are resolved to die rather than accept the decree.

The Dublin Corporation by a Large Majority Declare That No Address of Welcome Shall Be Presented.

Dublin, March 16 .- At a meeting o Thursday last of the nationalist section of the municipal council, a manifesto from Mr. Parnell was read advising the nationalists to maintain an attitude of reserve during the visit of the Prince of Wales, and declaring that the visit was inopportune, while an unspeakably-inde-cent coterie remained in possession of Dub-lin castle. The matter was placed before the crown solicitors, who have rendered their opinion that the manifesto is a trea. sonable document. It is believed the government will base some severe action upon the opinion. The municipal corporation to-day by a vote of 41 to 17 rejected a motion to pre sent an address to the prince of Wales. Mr. Sullivan (home rule member of parliament for Westmeath) described the proposed visit as an attempt to politically whitewash Dublin castle. Mr. Cooper immediately afterwards discovered that the iron railing which protected the windows of C. Davies' jewelry store a few doors west had been wrenched off and the glass broken. Mr. Davies was roused, and speedily discovered that some watches in the window had been carried off. He did not know the exact amount of his loss, but thinks it will be light. Alc Saunders pitched into the clause of Brockton. Robins Bros. $500 in settlement of their full claims of $690 held by them against the claim be settled in full.

Ald. Saunders pitched into the clause of the works committee's report recommending that $2200 be paid the county of York for the test simple of the Kingston road and the removal of the toll bar as far east as Small's corners, opposite the Woodbine race course. Ald. Saunders designated the county council as a pack of wolves. The city people had given the farmers free markets and now the county effused to remove their tollgate without compensation. The city had already given them more than they were entitled to. Ald. Jones explained how he as a ratepayer and citizen of St. Lawrence ward had groaned under the burden of $125 per annum for tolls to reah the city with his own wares. And he had to travel over vilely kept roads at that. However, he was willing that the county wolves should get $2200 and be shut of them. The clause passed.

Then is lengthy and heated discussion followed on the clause of the works committee's report recommending that the by law requiring the street railway company to place conductors on all their cars be suspended for three months in order to obtain this proposal and urged the council to endorse the bylaw since it had been passed. Ald. Shaw said it was a mistake to suppose that because the council was dealing with a corporation it had a right to rub it in. OTTAWA, March 16.-The speaker took the chair at 3.30. After a few minutes in uestions put and answered, the motion by Mr. Cook "for a copy of the memorial to Simcoe praying for a refund of the bonuses granted by the municipalities of the county to railways declared by parliament works for the general advantage of Canada" was taken up and discussed during the after. noon and evening sittings. On one side it was contended that these railways had by act of parliament passed from the contro of the municipalities and from the control of the legislature of Ontario, hence the municipalities should be recouped; on the other side it was contended that the Ontario legislature had chartered and subsidise these railways without reservation or proviso against change of ownership, therefor had no claim: also that the municipalities were relieved from all furthe consibility to aid in the operation of the lines, some of which were non-productive, others inefficient or closed; that they were now secure in operation as portions of trunk lines by the increase of traffic, gave larger local accommodation, and added value to the lands in the sections they passed through and added value to the lands in the sections they passed through.

Mr. Macmillan (Middlesex) admitted that on previous local lines, over which only three trains per day passed, the number of daily trains was now upwards of twenty.

The debate was not animating. Mr. White (Renfray) made the most argument.

The debate was not animating. Mr. White (Renfrew) made the most argumentative speech in support of the view that the municipalities were in a better position now by the action of parliament in 1883, and had lost none of the benefits anticipated when bonusing these lines. On the contrary their present accommodations and prospects were much improved.

None of the leaders on either side spoke.

Mr. Blake was conspicuous by his absence. Mr. Blake was conspicuous by his absence during the debate.

The motion passed without a division and the house adjourned at 11 o'clock.
