LONDONERS ENJOY CIVIC HOLIDAY

Various Forms of Amusements Were Provided

NO ACCIDENTS REPORTED

Large Crowds Go to Port Stanley and Springbank

Despite the rather chilly reception accorded the holiday crowds yesterday by the weather man Londoners took full advantage of Civic Holiday by spending a day at Port Stanley or at Springbank or in motor trips or other amusements. The rain last evening dampened the ardor of many citizens who had planned to go to Springbank for the evening, but with this exception the weather had but little effect on the number at the various resorts.

NO ACCIDENTS REPORTED

Port Stanley attracted a large crowd and Springbank also had its full quota all day. Early in the morning the citizens started for Port and by noon the grounds were covered with men, women and children, bent on making the most of what in reality is looked upon as the last summer holiday.

MANY TAKE DIP

While the weather did not lessen the number of merrymakers there were but few who braved the cold waters of the lake. The sports on the heights provided the center of attraction, although the booths on the board walk were also well patronized. Thousands of Londoners were attracted to the lakeside by the mystery wedding. The large crowds were well handled by the L. & P. S.

With a 10-minute service between 10 o'clock a.m. to 1 p.m. and a five-minute service thereafter until late in the evening, the Springbank line carried thousands of citizens to the river park. While there were no organized sports there the large crowds found plenty of amusement. Many private picnics were staged there yesterday.

Two ball games at Tecumseh Park provided plenty of attraction for the baseball fans of the city and district. The attendance was large at both games.

The theaters also were crowded, both in the afternoon and evening. Hundreds of citizens who remained in London spent a few hours at one of the playhouses enjoying the show. The attractions were uniformly good.

TENNIS AND BOWLING.

The tennis tournament in Thames Park yesterday afternoon also drew a large crowd. In addition to this there were several bowling tournaments held on the various greens throughout the city, in which many Londoners participated.

While many of the cities and some of the smaller municipalities of Ontario observed the first Monday in August as civic holiday, this practice is not general throughout the province, and there is a move on foot to have the day observed as a "Provincial Civic Holiday" in London, Toronto, Ottawa, Hamilton, Brantford, Windsor, Guelph, Stratford and Woodstock. In addition to this, the probability London, Council would be willing to assist in any movement that would make the holiday uniform. There is no doubt that the first Monday in August is the best day for the province as a whole. Possibly the farmers would not be so willing to lay down work on this day, but all the village towns and cities would be likely to fall in line for the Provincial Civic Holiday, it is thought.

FORD COUPE STOLEN.

A Ford coupe, No. 25-341, owned by H. Corbeau, Toronto, who is visiting with Ben Pinder, 57 Becher street, was stolen from the front of Hyman Hall, Clarence street, last night at 11 o'clock. The police department was notified of the robbery and the officers are in search of the missing car.

RESIGNS FROM BETHESDA.

Miss Grace H. Vesey, R. N., daughter of Rev. J. H. Vesey, of this city, who has been night supervisor at the Bethesda Hospital, has resigned her position, and after Thursday will take a short vacation. She will later return to London.

TO MOUNT PLEASANT.

The funeral of Miss Elizabeth Jane Loughrey, who died on Saturday, was held yesterday from the residence of her brother, 361 Piccadilly street. The services were conducted at 2 o'clock by Rev. Dr. McCrea. Interment was made at Mount Pleasant Cemetery. Brothers and nephews of the deceased acted as pallbearers.

WEATHER FOR JULY THE HOTTEST IN YEARS

In addition to being the hottest month on record for years, July, 1921, will be famed for the heaviest rainfall on one day that has been known for nearly 40 years. Between 3 p.m. on July 9 and 2 p.m. on July 10 3.15 inches of rain poured down on London. The total rainfall for the month was 5.55 inches.

The hottest day of the month was on July 4, when the mercury soared to 100.5, according to the official records. The coolest day of July was on the 12th, when the thermometer touched 64. For the first eight days of the month the mercury ranged at 90 degrees or higher—mostly higher the average man would say.

July of 1920 was not nearly so warm for the thermometer did not go higher than 87 degrees, which was reached on July 2. The lowest was 42 degrees on July 27.

The total rainfall for July one year ago was higher than for the month just past. The records show that 6.34 inches of rain fell in July, 1920.

SEEKS ADVENTURES AND LANDS IN JAIL

OLIPHANT, Aug. 1.—Gilbert John, a Saugeen Indian, is languishing in the Bruce county jail following a spell of adventurous lawlessness. John burglarized the summer cottages of a physician at Sauble Beach and Dr. Middlebro at Sauble Beach, getting a supper of tasty eats. He then took a 17-foot skiff and went for a sail up around Tebeberry. From there he crossed to Christian Islands and then on to Parry Sound, where High Constable Briggs, of Walkerton, who had been hoping to hear of John's whereabouts, learned that he had been arrested. John was brought down to the county jail on Thursday. He pleaded guilty before Judge Klein and was remanded until August 22 for sentence.

DAMAGE SLIGHT.

A fire broke out at W. A. Brock's store, 113 Dundas street, at 3:52 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The fire department was summoned, but the blaze was extinguished in a short time. Only one motor truck was sent to the scene and one line of hose laid. The damage was slight.

lage, Tommy Dandya, "Sentimental Tommy."

Tommy has unlimited imagination and, just out of his teens, has become a recognized figure in London as a successful author. On returning to the village for a visit Tommy finds that Grisel loves him. He goes away and Grisel does not hear from him for a long time, and fearing that he is in trouble she follows him and finds him making love to another woman. She flees home at once and is followed by the remorseful and sentimental lad who marries her and sacrifices everything.

The vaudeville program is a good one, headed by Arthur Deacon, well known as a musical comedy star.

A Mack Sennett comedy and a Loew's Pictorial conclude a fine program, which should draw crowded houses for the remainder of the run.

TORONTO POLICEMAN MUCH OVERZEALOUS

Fire Revolver to Awe Inmates of House He Was Raiding; Suspended, He Resigns

TORONTO, August 1.—Constable Naylor, of the Toronto police force, was suspended to-night after he had conducted an unauthorized raid on a house and had arrested four men on a charge of violating the O.T.A. Naylor was off duty at the time and was dressed partly in soldiers' and partly in civilian clothes.

Fearing that he might have trouble with the four he fired his revolver in the house to overawe them. He was a thoroughly disgusted officer when he arrived at the station with the men only to have them liberated by his superior.

When told that he was suspended he wrote his resignation.

TOUR OF JAP PRINCE IS LIKELY TO CHANGE THE COURT AT TOKIO

TOKIO, July 18.—Changes, democratic in nature, will probably be made for the court life of Japan and in the relations of the imperial family to the people, as a result of the visit of Prince Hirohito to Europe. It is likely that the printing of photographs of members of the imperial family in newspapers and magazines will be permitted. The military guards which are always established on the occasion of a visit of a member of the imperial family to any place outside the palace will also be simplified, if the suggestions which have been formulated by officers of the imperial household are accepted.

According to one report, the household department requested the crown prince to inquire while he is abroad as to the customs which are followed in the royal family of Great Britain and as to the social works which are undertaken by them. It is assumed that these customs and practices which exist in Great Britain will be adopted here following the crown prince's return to Japan.

TOO MUCH COMPETITION.

She (to young poet) — "How much do you get for your poems, Charlie?" Charlie (with pride) — "I have had half a guinea."

She — "Well, isn't that very little? I was reading that Sir Walter Scott got £500 for one of his."

Charlie — "Yes; but writing poetry isn't the business it was before the war. There's too much competition!"

Goodyear Tires Lower in Price Than Before the War

BEFORE the war Goodyear Tires were of such value that more motorists used them than any other brand. Today an even greater percentage of the world's automobiles are equipped with Goodyears;

Because Goodyear Tires cost less today than in 1914

Because Goodyear Tires are better tires than in 1914

These savings in price are only a fraction of the greater value you get in Goodyear Tires today. The increased mileage resulting from seven years of improvement is even greater than the reduction in price.

Goodyear Tires are today the dominating value on the Canadian market. The Canadian army of veteran motorists who know tires keeps swinging to Goodyears. It will pay you to see the nearest Goodyear dealer about tires.

At the Theaters

AT THE PATRICA.
Thrills, comedy, more thrills and still more feature the "Big Town Round-up" in which Tom Mix is starred at Patricia Theater for the first half of the present week. Yesterday's performances were attended by capacity audiences and the picture was thoroughly enjoyed.

The story is conventional, but filled with opportunities for Tom Mix to shine in the particular brand of screen in which his admirers declare he without an equal. The red-blooded owner of a California ranch as the life of a wealthy San Francisco girl and is invited to all the parties and the big town. He falls in love with the girl and she, in consequence plunges into a thrilling series of adventures and mixups in which his red-blooded gameness, manly development and super horse-ship stand him in good stead. As he wins out, disposes of his enemies and wins the girl of his choice and the picture fans have needed more than the usual measure of interest.

Tom Mix is well supported by Oran as the San Francisco society and Gilbert Holmes as his terrible cowboy chum. One of the thrilling scenes in the film, and which will rank with any of the "stunts" yet achieved by the show, is the scene in which Tom Mix is sliding for his life over a steep cliff from an upper story of a teeming building to a waiting automobile in street. In another he leaps from a mid-story veranda to his ailing father. In addition to these arm-opportunity is given him to measure his physical prowess, always against odds, these scenes proved especially popular with the audiences.

Other features of the program include Lon Chaney, in a two-reel feature and a comedy the leading role, which was the feature attraction at Allen's for the holiday, and which will be repeated on Tuesday and Wednesday.

"Brewster's Millions," adapted from George Barr McCutcheon's most popular novel of the same name, had a wonderful reception as a stage production, but it is an even greater success as a film story. The wider range of possibilities allowed by the motion picture has added much to the story of the spendthrift millionaire.

The story is a comedy romance, and with "Fatty" Arbuckle playing the lead, the comedy predominates. The screen version is embellished by a scene that appears neither in the book nor the play, but which adds much to the comedy value of the screen attraction.

The program at Allen's for the first half of the week is a predominately comedy one. In addition to "Fatty" Arbuckle patrons were treated to a merry few minutes with that imitable light-producer, "Smoot" Pottard, in a "different" comedy, "The Bike Bug." It is a treat.

Other features of the good program are the Allen World News Pictorial, a Chester Outing Picture and the always enjoyable music for which the Allen Theater in London has made a reputation.

AT LOEW'S.
A Scotch village and the wonderful old capital of the world, London, are the settings of the delightful little love tale, "Sentimental Tommy," which opened at Loew's Theater on Civic Holiday and will be shown again on Tuesday and Wednesday. It is a strong human interest story and is unusually well acted.

The story of "Sentimental Tommy" opens in a little Scotch village, and shows Grisel, a serious little lassie of 12 years, who is ostracized by the villagers and who longs for companionship and understanding. The villagers stand aloof from her because of her mother, who is known as the painted lady.

Grisel is the butt of the other children of the town, and during the midst of one of the frequent torturings which she undergoes at the hands of the other children she finds a staunch supporter in the person of a new-comer to the vil-
