cannot be misunderstood when we consider that in spite of a year of depression Canada's business has continued to develop, and that to day much greater capital is invested in our business enterprises than ever before.

Thirty-two years ago Nova Scotia granted the Windsor & Annapolis Railway company a drawback of duties on materials and stock used for the construction and operating of the road. Parliament in 1896 authorized the extinguishment of the right, and $100,000 has been paid to the Dominion Atlantic Railway company, successors of the original incorporators, in commutation of it under an agreement signed October 7. The last Gazette contains a proclamation repailing the legislation granting the concession.

—Capt Isaao Goodwin, of Upper Granville, arrived by steamer LaTour on Friday last, looking as hale and hearty as when he first gained more than a local reputation as the champion Bank skipper of this province. In fact he was among the earliest to prosecute that fishery with anything like what is now termed success, and for many seasons he regularly brought into Pubnico, where he then resided, fares in which there were piles of money. That was a long time ago, methods and markets have somewhat changed, but Capt. Goodwin's record is still well known among the veterans in that calling. He comes now to visit his son, Capt. Benjamin Goodwin, of North-East Point.—Coast Guard.

Coast Guard.

Wm. McNaughton, the somewhat notorious county "moonshiner," was captured at Digby last Friday after having evaded the law for several months. Last April the inland revenue officer discovered an illicit still on the North Mountain, near Bridgetown, and their raid disclosed evidence safficient to warrant the belief that McNaughton was the sperator. Constables scoured the county in search of him but he took a quiet trip to the southern counties and about a month later left for the United States. His trial took place here on Saturday and Monday before Stipendary Fay and resulted in his being sentenced to Imprisonment for a term of eight months with hard labor and to pay a fine of $500, and in default of fine to serve an additional term of eight months.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. After six months labor among the people of this town, we have received orders to farewell and proceed to Parrsboro, N. S. We wish, through the medium of the Montroe, to thank the many kind friends who have cheered and helped us in different ways since coming to Bridgetown, especially those who so kindly remembered us at the Christmastide.
