

Holland and France, 3-4; title of second narrative, 4; returns to Canada, 4; joins Jesuits, 4; spends three years in travelling, 6; third voyage, 7-8; visits Lake Superior, 9; offers to visit Hudson's Bay, 10; meets English Commissioners, 11; lawsuit against, 11; visits Nantucket, 12; taken to Spain, 12; in England, 13-14; accused of trying to counterfeit coin, 15; originated the Hudson's Bay Settlement, 15; visits Prince Rupert, 15; difficulty with Hudson's Bay Company, 17; goes to Port Nelson, 17; to France and England, 20; with Hudson's Bay Company (1685), 20; narrative of, described, 22,—owners of, 22-23; first voyage, 25; goes fowling, 25; superstition of, 26-27; captured by Indians, 28-29; treatment of, 31-33; taught to sing, 33; dressed by Indians, 34; wrestles with an Indian, 37; adopted, 39-40; taken on a journey, 41; meets an Algonquin and escapes, 42-44; recaptured, 46; tortured, 48-59; parents protect him, 51; foster-father, 63; goes with the natives on the war-path, 64; journey described, 65; meets a strange animal, 69; captures prisoners, 72; kills prisoners, 73; divides booty, 75-77; meets foster-friends, 76; visits Fort Orange, 79; refuses to escape, 80; repents the refusal, 81-82; escapes, 82-84; reaches Menada, 85; sails for Amsterdam and reaches Rochelle, 85-86; second voyage, 86; has Iroquois guides, 95; enters Lake St. Francis, 98; treachery of Iroquois, 99-101;

reaches a great river, 107; searched by Indians, 110; meets old friends, 113; his boat driven from shore, 115; witnesses birth of an Indian child, 117; meets Jesuits, 118; treachery of Indians, 123; builds a ship, 125; gives feast to Indians, 128; escapes, 130; reaches Lake Ontario, 131; reaches Hight of St. Louis, 133; and rests at Three Rivers, 134; prepares to start upon another voyage, 134-136; warned by an Indian, 139; assaulted by Indians, 140; some of the party return, 142-145; fights Indians, 147; meets Indians from Hudson's Bay, 151; made much of, 152; describes the country, 153-156; gives battle, 154; rests for the winter, 155; resumes his journey, 157; forced to stop a year, 158; calls a council, 159; starts south, 162; assaulted by Iroquois, 165; arrives at Quebec, 170; fourth narrative, 173; proposes to make another voyage, 174; assaulted by Iroquois, 178; attacks Indian fort, 179; Indians escape, 180; attacks another fort, 181; burial of Indians, 183; kills his prisoners, 184; reaches Lake of Castors, 186; Lake Superior, 187; finds much copper, 188; compares the country with Turkey, 189; names the Pictured Rocks, 190-191; visits Huron Islands, 191; meets Christinos, 193; builds fort, 193-195; remains twelve days, 196; distributes presents, 199; calls council, 200; rests for the winter, 201; famine, 203; eats his dogs, 205; visited by Nadoneserons, 207; builds fort,