

—Canadian News.—Arrival of the British Sloop-of-War
 “Raccoon.”—Accident on Board that Vessel.—The Captain takes Formal Possession of Astoria.—Surprise and Discontent of the Officers and Crew.—Departure of the “Raccoon” . . . . . 190

CHAPTER XVI.

Expeditions to the Interior.—Return of Messrs. John Stuart and D. M’Kenzie.—Theft committed by the Natives.—
 War Party against the Thieves . . . . . 205

CHAPTER XVII.

Description of Tongue Point.—A Trip to the Willamet.— Arrival of W. Hunt in the Brig Pedlar.—Narrative of the Loss of the Ship Lark.—Preparations for crossing the Continent . . . . . 220

CHAPTER XVIII.

Situation of the Columbia River.—Qualities of its Soil.—
 Climate, &c.—Vegetable and Animal Productions of the Country . . . . . 229

CHAPTER XIX.

Manners, Customs, Occupations, &c., of the Natives on the River Columbia. . . . . 240

CHAPTER XX.

Manners and Customs of the Natives continued.—Their Wars.—Their Marriages.—Medicine Men.—Funeral Ceremonies.—Religious Notions.—Language. . . . . 250

CHAPTER XXI.

Departure from Astoria or Fort George.—Accident.—Passage of the Dalles or Narrows.—Great Columbian Desert.