A HISTORY OF Nova-Scotia or Acadie,

BY BEAMISH MURDOCH, Esquire, Barrister at Law, Q.C.

This work, on which the author has been engaged since 1860, will contain a full account of the early French adventurers in this country,—their mutual contests,—the wars with the English, the circumstances of the conquest,—the settlement of Halifax,—the Indian wars,—the attempts at re-conquest and the particulars of the final expulsion of the French inhabitants.

It will then trace the progress of the British in Nova Scotia in war, in settlement, and in legislation, in the form of annals; bringing the chain of transactions down to modern times.

Many battles and sieges which affected the fate of this and many other parts of North America will be noticed. Among others, the sieges of Port Royal (Annapolis), of the fort in St. John harbor, those of Jemseg and Nashwaak, and the two sieges of Louisbourg, also that of Beausejour,—all of which occurred within the original territory of Acadie.

The writer was induced to undertake this work, by observing the success of the Record Commission of Nova Scotia, in collecting a mass of manuscripts which contain information that was before wholly inaccessible, regarding the early events in this country. Among these are the correspondence of the French governors with the ministry at Paris, copies of which were procured from Canada, and the correspondence of the British governors with the Secretaries of State, &c., obtained from the State paper offices in London.

Every available source of information has been investigated closely, to obtain full materials from original and authentic documents, both printed and manuscript, so that everything valuable connected in any way with our early history might be preserved.

The numbers will be issued monthly, each number to contain 80 pages.

The whole work will probably be completed in about twenty numbers.

Provision will be made for the proper division into volumes, with Prefaces, Indexes, &c., for each.

No single numbers for sale. Supplied to Subscribers only.

Subscribers names will be received at the Book Store of Messrs A. & MACKINLAY, Halifax; and by Mr. THOMAS JAMES, who has been appointed to canvass the city, and deliver the numbers.
