BUILDING.

We are building every day,
In a good or evil way,
And the structure as it grows
Will our inmost self disclose.

Till in every arch and hue
All our faults and failings shine,
It may grow a castle grand,
Or a wreck upon the sea!

Do you ask what building this,
That can show both pain and bliss,
That can be both dark and fair?
Lo, its name is Character!

Build it well, whatever you do,
Build it straight, and strong, and true,
Build it clean, high and broad,
Build it for the eye of God!

PUPILS' LOCALS.

From the Boys' Side of the Institution

[BY ALEXANDER SWANSON.]

—On the 5th inst., a man drove a horse across the bay on the ice, for the first time.

—Clifford Currie had a severe attack of croup. His mother came to see him. We are glad that he is better. He also has the measles.

—Miss Ada James, one of the teachers, is sick in bed, and John Patrick, an all-day pupil in the printing-office, teaches her class.

—Fred Baker went home last month, and will not return to school. He can hear very well and his father is going to get a teacher for him at home.

—One of the boys feeling tired sat down on an old bench, when it broke and the boy fell but did not get hurt. One of the boys, in the carpenter shop, put a new board on.

—We have about five inches of snow, but sleighing is not very good. The bay is frozen over again, and we expect to have a good time Christmas. On the 4th inst., some boys who went for a walk got their ears frozen.

PUPILS' LOCALS.

From the Girls' Side of the Institution

[BY ANNIE MCPHAIL.]

—Who will be Santa Claus here?

—Bella Herrington got a very nice large book from her loving chum Maggie Borthwick lately.

—Some days ago Mary Watson got a photograph from home, and we all think it is very nice.

—The Superintendent's daughter, Miss Annie Mathison, teaches Mr. J. B. Ashloy's class now.

—Two girls got each a letter and a small photograph from one of the former pupils, Eliza McIntyre.

—We are very sorry for some of the teachers, who are sick now. We hope they will get better again soon.

—Ah! Christmas is coming soon. It is only 10 days more. Many of us expect to get some good things from good old Santa Claus.

—Two of the girls got a nice letter from their chum, Mary Nahrgang, lately. She is well, and is enjoying herself very much at home.

—On afternoon, Miss Bull took some of us (girls) out for a long walk, and we enjoyed ourselves. We always think she is very good and kind to us.

—A new teacher, Mr. G. Campbell, came here on Monday, 4th inst. He is a very nice gentleman, and we like him very much. He will teach Mr. Beaton's class.

—On Sunday, 3rd inst., in the morning when we got up, we were surprised to see the snow-storm. The sleighing is not very good here, but the Bay is frozen, and we expect to be allowed to go skating soon.

—Miss Walker was called home to Hamilton, as her brother-in-law, Mr. Urquhart died on the 6th. We all sympathize with her. She came back on Monday last and we are all glad she is here again.

—Some days ago, Miss Annie Mathison, the Superintendent's daughter, took two of the girls—Maud Culligan and M. Thomas—who are not very well, out for a long drive. They said they had a good time and that Miss Mathison was very kind to them.

—On Saturday, 2nd inst., in the evening, we assembled in the chapel, and
