

Strangers and new comers feel at home with us.

Pointers.

The Young Men's Class, "At Home" was a pleasant affair. The vestry was tastefully trimmed with evergreen and bunting. The organization of the committee and helpers so necessary to success, was well nigh perfect. The programme was of good taste and excellent. An honest attempt was made to make everyone feel "at Home" and we believe it succeeded. We might well have more of these opportunities of getting better acquainted with each other and each other's friends.

Our B. Y. P. U. have a Temperance Meeting on Monday evening, March 4. Miss Maudie Hulley will read a paper, Miss Ada Smith will give a reading. The Messrs McPherson and McQuinn will give two Musical selections. A special invitation is extended to all to attend this special service. Remember the date, March 4.

We have read of a new kind of a collection box, an affair into which a dollar or a half dollar, or even a quarter would fall without making any noise on a softly pulled cushion, a five cent piece would ring a bell, while a penny or a trou of blinton would fire off a gun. This patent collection box is not on exhibition, but if put into actual use would doubtless limit the harm done by Alexander, the copper smith.

"What sort of a man is most helpful to you?" asked one clergyman of another. "I mean to you personally and individually." If you really want to know" said the older man, with symptoms of a smile at the corners of his mouth, "it isn't either of those men who helps me most, it is the man who may or may not agree with my views, but who cares enough about my opinions to come to church on Sunday Sundays, when most people stay at home. He is my best helper." — The Wellspring.

Applications for sittings should be made to Deacon Jas McPherson. The seats are assigned, not rented. Each holder of a sitting is expected to be a contributor.
