

The PORTFOLIO

October, 1893.

The title 'THE PORTFOLIO' is rendered in a decorative, serif font. The letter 'P' is significantly larger and more ornate, with a laurel wreath wrapped around its base. Above the word 'PORTFOLIO', the word 'THE' is written in a smaller, simpler font. To the right of 'THE' is an illustration of a lamp with rays of light emanating from it, resting on a book. The entire title is enclosed within a decorative horizontal bar with ornate scrollwork at the ends.
