

Carstares," showing his distinguished character and career in the great revolutionary epoch of 1649—1715. "Tichendorff on the New Testament, in Greek;" and in the purifying and perfecting of which, Tichendorff, the eminent biblical scholar, has had the chief agency. "Pith in Exposition of Scripture;" an able and useful discussion, calling for the attention of those Scripture expositors who would bring out the true import of the Word. "Christ Preaching to the Spirits in Prison;" another ingenious inquiry into that "hard to be understood" passage, 1 Peter iii. 19, also iv. 6. "Suggestive Readings from the Syriac New Testament." "Rhetorical Science;" this is an inquiry deserving careful examination by public speakers, and by those who would be teachers of sound truth in revelation and general knowledge. There are other articles, and as usual in the Princeton, a large amount of valuable information on topics highly important and useful in these days, when there is so much of daring speculation bearing upon Scriptural religion and general science.

The agent for the Review in Canada, Rev. Andrew Kennedy, London, hopes that present subscribers will continue, and that others will send him their names. He wishes to make known that there is necessarily a small addition to the charge, from $2 25 to $2 35, as it will cost him 25 cents, American, more than formerly, and he only puts on 10 cents additional. The full price now in advance is $3 60, American; $2 60 is the lowest rate taken from ministers in the States whose income is within $700 of their money. Subscribers will please notify Mr. K. before the end of December.
