

CATHOLIC CHRONICLE.

VOL. XXXVII.—NO. 3.

MONTREAL, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 25, 1886.

PRICE - - FIVE CENTS

THE CHURCH—IRELAND.

Be Not Ashamed.

Cardinal Moran, replying to an address presented to him by the Australasian Catholic Benefit Society, said:—

Amid the universal shipwreck the Catholic Church remained unharmed. She continued to be an ark of salvation, not for the conquered only, but also for the conqueror.

Amid the universal shipwreck the Catholic Church remained unharmed. She continued to be an ark of salvation, not for the conquered only, but also for the conqueror.

Amid the universal shipwreck the Catholic Church remained unharmed. She continued to be an ark of salvation, not for the conquered only, but also for the conqueror.

and every tongue. The sun never sets on her widespread spiritual dominion.

At the present day she numbers more than 200,000,000, who receive the lessons of divine truth from her lips.

That land of the West is fair indeed among the nations. Nature, spreading out her richest gifts with no stated hand, has given to her noble harbors, majestic rivers, a genial soil.

The Sovereign Pontiff Leo XIII. has just given the Society of Jesus a new evidence of his high esteem and fatherly affection by publishing the Brief Dolens inter alia, of which the following is a translation.

Amid the universal shipwreck the Catholic Church remained unharmed. She continued to be an ark of salvation, not for the conquered only, but also for the conqueror.

Amid the universal shipwreck the Catholic Church remained unharmed. She continued to be an ark of salvation, not for the conquered only, but also for the conqueror.

alienable birthright. At no distant day the great statesman who now holds the helm of the Empire will, by granting this legislative independence, add another to the unending laurels which he has already won in dealing justice to the Irish people, and this legislative freedom will be the crowning triumph of the peaceful struggle for justice which Ireland's sons, through good report and evil report, have carried on for centuries.

congratulated his countrymen on their first great victory of emancipation: "The men of Erin know that the only basis of liberty is religion. They have triumphed because the voice they raised on behalf of their country had raised itself in prayer to God.

He expresses his high esteem and personal affection for the Society.

The Sovereign Pontiff Leo XIII. has just given the Society of Jesus a new evidence of his high esteem and fatherly affection by publishing the Brief Dolens inter alia, of which the following is a translation.

Amid the universal shipwreck the Catholic Church remained unharmed. She continued to be an ark of salvation, not for the conquered only, but also for the conqueror.

Amid the universal shipwreck the Catholic Church remained unharmed. She continued to be an ark of salvation, not for the conquered only, but also for the conqueror.

turned loose against the church of Jesus Christ; may it pursue the end of its institution for the greater glory of God and the eternal salvation of souls.

THE IRISH QUESTION.

HON. T. P. O'CONNOR'S PROTEST AGAINST SALISBURY'S POLICY

LONDON, Aug. 20.—In the House of Commons this afternoon Mr. Biggar (Parnellite) moved that a new writ be issued for an election in the south division of Sligo in place of Mr. Sexton, who, having been elected to both that seat and for the west division of Belfast, declined to sit for the latter.

Amid the universal shipwreck the Catholic Church remained unharmed. She continued to be an ark of salvation, not for the conquered only, but also for the conqueror.

Amid the universal shipwreck the Catholic Church remained unharmed. She continued to be an ark of salvation, not for the conquered only, but also for the conqueror.

THE NEW NATIONAL COMMITTEE.

Thanks to Mr. Patrick Egan voted at its First Meeting—Friday the Arrest of the Canadian Delegates.

The Chicago correspondent of the New York Herald telegraphs as follows: A meeting of the new National Committee of the Irish National League was held to-day, with President John Fitzgerald in the chair.

THE POVERTY OF IRELAND.

Why the Irish Emigrate—Scents and Wages—A Market Scene in Galway.

DUBLIN, Aug. 2.—The present population of Ireland is almost exactly what it was at the beginning of the century. It was then about five million, and rapidly increased until 1841, when it numbered 8,196,000.

Amid the universal shipwreck the Catholic Church remained unharmed. She continued to be an ark of salvation, not for the conquered only, but also for the conqueror.

Amid the universal shipwreck the Catholic Church remained unharmed. She continued to be an ark of salvation, not for the conquered only, but also for the conqueror.

Amid the universal shipwreck the Catholic Church remained unharmed. She continued to be an ark of salvation, not for the conquered only, but also for the conqueror.

Amid the universal shipwreck the Catholic Church remained unharmed. She continued to be an ark of salvation, not for the conquered only, but also for the conqueror.

Amid the universal shipwreck the Catholic Church remained unharmed. She continued to be an ark of salvation, not for the conquered only, but also for the conqueror.

Amid the universal shipwreck the Catholic Church remained unharmed. She continued to be an ark of salvation, not for the conquered only, but also for the conqueror.

enough to have any, usually share the hut with the family. They are not delicate about these matters, and not too proud to associate on even terms with the pig.

Not one child in ten among these yearly tenants and farm laborers ever goes to school a day. There are no schools for them, in the first place, and if the schools were available few of them would be able to bear the necessary expense of attending.

English and Scotch landlords usually live on their estates at least a part of the year; the land is generally let in large tracts on long leases, and the people who cultivate the soil are usually retained for long terms of service.

While in Galway, I saw the Saturday markets, which are attended by the country folk for ten or twelve miles around. The markets are held in the open air, in squares and open spaces in the streets.

Amid the universal shipwreck the Catholic Church remained unharmed. She continued to be an ark of salvation, not for the conquered only, but also for the conqueror.

Amid the universal shipwreck the Catholic Church remained unharmed. She continued to be an ark of salvation, not for the conquered only, but also for the conqueror.

BELFAST POLICE ATTACKED AND ROUTED BY A MOB.

BELFAST, Aug. 23, 9.30 p.m.—This evening a detachment of police attempted to disperse a mob on Shank Hill. The mob became infuriated, threw volleys after volleys of stones at the police and routed them.

TROUBLE AT AN EVICTION. DUBLIN, Aug. 23.—During an eviction at Ballyogan, Kilkenny, to-day a row took place, during which the police were stoned and a number of bailiffs were severely injured.