

half brother Samuel Day . . . $1,000; to his son Bert Day . . . $1,000.

I also give and bequeath to my friend George Shore stock to the amount of $100 held by me in the Stratford Clothing Company; to his wife also $100 stock in the said company; to Robert Shore . . . stock in the said company to the amount of $100; to William Warner . . . stock in the said company to the amount of $50; to Lucy Smith . . . stock in the said company to the amount of $100. Said stock to be transferred to the several parties 3 months after my decease.

I hereby amend clause H. in my said will by changing same from $2,000 to $4,000.

I hereby cancel clause I. of my said will.

And I direct that the provision made in clause M. in my said will, in case the legacy therein mentioned shall come to the city of Stratford, that the same shall be invested by the city of Stratford for the benefit of class under clause H. in my said will, instead of clause I. as therein mentioned. And that where clause I. is referred to in my will, it shall be read as H.

I give and devise to the city of Stratford lots J., K., (and a number of others, describing them) . . . to be used as and in connection with parts of lots V. and W. . . . which have already been conveyed by me to the said city of Stratford for the same purpose as is set out in the conveyance from me to the said city of Stratford. . . .

In all other respects I do confirm my said will.

The second codicil was dated 8th March, 1906, and was as follows:—

I hereby revoke the appointment of Samuel Day as one of my executors, and nominate and appoint my nephew William Albert Day, usually known as Bert Day, in his place and stead.

I hereby revoke the legacy of $100 to George Warner, and give and bequeath to him $50 in cash in lieu thereof. To be paid in 3 months after my decease.
