In this issue we reprint updated excerpts from a selection of past articles. We do this immodest thing for two reasons — in three years the circulation of Canada Today/D'Aujourd'hui has gone from 5,000 to 30,000. Some of the articles within will be new to most readers and all of them will be new to some. Our second reason combines appreciation and ambition: we sent out a questionnaire in February and over 5,000 readers filled it in and sent it back. (See page thirteen). Only three readers made adverse comments and most of the rest made positive ones. Some were so pleasant that we are unable to quote them in public. We are grateful and would like to have more such readers. If you know someone who might like to read Canada Today/D'Aujourd'hui, we hope you will pass this issue on. Anyone who wishes to receive it regularly need only drop us a note. Our address is on the back page.
