

the duties of the Commonwealth is to keep the light in the window on for South Africa, to urge and facilitate reform, yet keep alive the prospect of reconciliation once apartheid is disavowed and undone.