

The individual provincial viewpoints will be well represented in the trade talks, as agreed at the last First Ministers' meeting in Halifax. A Federal-Provincial committee of senior officials has already begun regular meetings.

No nation has ever gone to the trade table with a more open, democratic foundation supporting the negotiating team.