

LETTERBOX

Dear Editor,

I don't know how the new smoking legislation is being implemented in Ottawa, but I imagine Michel Duval's cartoons could lighten the atmosphere there, as they have here.

Michel is a regular contributor to The Bon(n) Mot, our bi-weekly newsletter. I think he deserves wider distribution.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Ms. Campbell-Pagé,

I have just recently started working for CIDA as their community coordinator in Bangkok and one of my duties is to publish a newsletter regularly, therefore I would like to ask you for your permission to copy any articles from Liaison that I find could be of interest to CIDA cooperants in Bangkok and their families. I find that they can benefit from the many ideas on how to cope with life abroad by reading the many good stories that Foreign Service families contribute to Liaison.

Looking forward to hearing from you, I remain,

Yours Sincerely,
Luci Vanderloo
CIDA Community Coordinator

Dear Editor,

Really enjoyed the Liaison at post and at External and know everyone reads it, often it is the only magazine to read.

Would you tell my friends and acquaintances "au revoir, till we meet again," as I transferred from External in Sept. '88 to DND at CFB Esquimalt; in Feb '89 I married my soulmate James Hawkesworth in Spence Bay, NWT; our mailing address is Dept. 29 Box 4276, Stn. A, Victoria, B.C. V8X 3X8 (forward to wherever we are).

Sincerely,
Leslie-Alice "Daffy" Belland
