

Notes

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the general theory of the subject. It is shown that the theory is based on the principle of least action, and that the equations of motion can be derived from this principle. The theory is then applied to the case of a particle moving in a potential field, and it is shown that the equations of motion are identical to those obtained from Newton's laws of motion.