

International Atomic Energy Agency safeguards within the territory of a Party, that Party shall forthwith enter into an agreement with the other Party for the establishment of a safeguards arrangement applicable to that nuclear material that respects the principles and procedures of the safeguards system set out in the International Atomic Energy Agency document INFCIRC/66/Rev. 2 of September 16, 1968 and any subsequent amendments thereto and provides assurances equivalent to those provided by the safeguards agreement in place between that Party and the International Atomic Energy Agency on the date of the signature of this Agreement.

ARTICLE VIII

(1) Nuclear material shall remain subject to this Agreement until:

- (a) a determination is made by the International Atomic Energy Agency that it is no longer either usable or practicably recoverable for processing into a form in which it is usable for any nuclear activity relevant from the point of view of safeguards referred to in Article VII of this Agreement; both Parties shall accept a determination made by the International Atomic Energy Agency in accordance with the provisions for the termination of safeguards of the relevant safeguards agreement to which the International Atomic Energy Agency is a party;
- (b) it has been transferred from the jurisdiction of the recipient Party in accordance with the provisions of Article V of this Agreement; or
- (c) otherwise agreed between the Parties.

(2) Non-nuclear material and equipment shall remain subject to this Agreement until:

- (a) transferred from the jurisdiction of the recipient Party in accordance with the provisions of Article V of this Agreement; or
- (b) otherwise agreed between the Parties.
