

member of the Canadian delegation and will be responsible in Rome for continuing liaison with representatives of the non-governmental organizations. As the delegation list indicates, there will be direct provincial representation on the delegation and parliamentary observers are being designated by their respective parties.