M. Ken Robinson, député libéral d'Etobicoke-Lakeshore, a demandé des informations sur les activités de l'UNICEF concernant ses collectes de fonds et sa présence au Kampouchia (Cambodge).

The amount of money raised by Unicef at Hallowe'en is still being counted and the final figure is expected in January.

Last year $1,300,000 was collected and it is estimated that at least the equivalent will be raised this year.

Between 92 and 93% of this money is used for projects for children in developing countries. Over one million Canadian children raised this money. It is a unique program unequaled in scope or interest by any other country. The NGO Division of CIDA matches this money dollar for dollar. The Hallowe'en collection as such was not slated for Cambodia. It is an annual event for all children.

Attached for your information is a list of voluntary agencies' assistance for Kampuchea.

An important question of principle is involved in suggesting that CIDA recommend to an NGO Unicef or any other how or where they should spend their funds. The NGO Division of CIDA responds to initiatives taken by the
