

had been forwarded to the Government asking that release had been signed by men of all parties and creeds—one or more Protestant bishops being among the number. He believed that the Government would be fully warranted in making such a representation to the Imperial authorities as would secure the release of the prisoner. No good would result from depriving him of his liberty.

The motion was withdrawn. At six o'clock the House adjourned till Friday—to-morrow being a legal holiday.

mandant sa libération portent la signature d'hommes de tous les partis et confessions, entre autres celle d'au moins un évêque protestant. A son avis, le Gouvernement peut à juste titre intervenir auprès des autorités impériales pour demander la libération du prisonnier. Rien de bon ne peut résulter de son emprisonnement.

La motion est retirée. Le lendemain étant jour férié, la Chambre ajourne à six heures ses travaux jusqu'à vendredi.

---