AERONAUTICS ACT

AMENDMENT TO PROVIDE CANADIAN AIRCRAFT REGISTRY

Mr. John Drysdale (Burnaby-Richmond) moved for leave to introduce Bill No. C-35, to amend the Aeronautics Act.

Mr. Pickersgill: Explain.

Mr. Drysdale: I should like to thank the hon. member for Bonavista-Twillingate for his avid interest in this matter, and I hope he will support the bill when it comes forward. The purpose of this bill is to provide a central Canadian aircraft registry in order to record the title to and all encumbrances against Canadian civil aircraft. Provision is made for registration according to nationality in order to comply with the provisions of the convention on the international recognition of rights in aircraft. By providing a central aircraft registry according to nationality, Canada can then become a signatory to that convention.
