

TRINITY COLLEGE,
DUBLIN.

23rd March, 1925.

Dear Sir Arthur,

Your invitation which reaches me this morning is most kind, and if Archdeacon Paterson Smyth has made no other arrangement for me, I shall be very glad to take luncheon with you on May 11th. It will be interesting to have a peep at McGill University.

Yours very truly,

J. H. Bernard
(B/S)

General Sir Arthur Currie, G.C.M.G.
