

WORK FOR MR TYNDALE

Alternative Schemes

(A)-Without altering the existing curriculum or disturbing the permanent professors assign to him the lectures of Messrs Johnson, Chipman, and Rinfret.

(B)-Assign to him the lectures of Messrs Johnson and Chipman, also Judge Surveyer's lectures on Persons and Profm Macdougall's biennial lectures on Private International Law.

(C)-Assign to him Mr Johnson's lectures, perhaps increasing the number. Also transfer to him Judge Martin's courses on Corporations and Bankruptcy, in each case doubling the amount of instruction given in these important subjects, and Judge Howard's first year course on Obligations. Prof. Macdougall's course might with advantage be added. The principle of this scheme is the assignment of the whole field of commercial law to one teacher.

In each case I think he ~~xxx~~ might take the biennial short course on Criminal Procedure at present taken provisionally by Mr Rose. Schemes A and B would give him about six lectures per week and C about eight.

Mr. Johnson	receives	$375	or	$750	in alternate year
Mr. Rinfret	"	200	or	375	"
Prof. Macdougall	-	600
Mr. Chipman	-	750		a year
Prof. Howard	-	1200
" Martin	-	600
" Surveyer	-	600			for his lectures on Person
