THE following interesting and important Exposition was drawn up by the American Government, as an appeal to the people; in order to point out the necessity of such mighty and efficient preparations, for the campaign of 1815, as would assure its successful termination, by the expulsion of the British from every part of the American continent ! The proposal, by the secretary of war, for raising 100,000 men, was part of this plan of vigorous measures ; but the arrival of the advices of peace having been concluded, put a stop to these proceedings, and to the publication of the appeal. Since then, however, this document has been printed in America, where it has been widely circulated, to the extent, it is supposed, of a million of copies. It is believed to be the production of Mr. MADISON or Mr. MONROE ; but whoever was the writer, it is highly creditable to his talents as a politician, and seems to call for an answer from some able pen, on behalf of the British Government.
