

gage to conduct yourself as a faithful Minister of the Gospel among them, and also, wherever Providence affords you an opportunity ; keeping carefully in view, that this congregation, and the Church at large, be by your labours assisted, in the attainment of higher degrees of Christian improvement ?

9. Do you promise to exemplify the excellence of Christian doctrine by the conscientious performance of the duties of a holy life, corresponding with your station in the Church, and your relations to society ?

10. Do you declare that you are cordially attached to the civil authorities by which this Province is ruled ; and do you promise, according to your station, to give those proofs of loyalty which divine authority enjoins upon subjects towards their rulers ?

11. Do you promise to submit yourself, in the Lord, to the authority of this Presbytery, in subordination to superior Courts ?

And all these you profess to believe, and promise, through grace, to perform, as you must answer to the Lord Jesus Christ, when he comes with all his Saints ?
