

WHERE SHALL WE STAY, AND WHAT WILL IT
COST AT NIAGARA ?

You will find excellent quarters at Niagara Falls during the winter, spring, and autumn months at the SPENCER HOUSE—a cosy, homelike hotel. The internal arrangements of the hotel combine every advantage of quiet, comfort, and convenience. The rooms are tastefully and richly furnished and scrupulously clean. Viands that delight the eye and palate, linen, china, and silver of unexceptionable quality, servants ready without impertinence, and prompt without bribery, render it a most agreeable place of entertainment. Charles Dickens has praised its table, Wilkie Collins its beds and fine linen, Booth declares it his favorite hotel, Mojeska, Parepa Rosa, Barrett—that prince and king of good-fellowship, Chauncey M. Depew,—King Kalakaua, the Grand Duke Alexis, Bartholdi, and hundreds of others have enjoyed its hospitalities. It is kept on the American plan from May to November. Its prices for rooms and board on the first floor are $4.00 per day per person; on the second floor, $3.50, and on the third floor, $3.00. From November to May it is kept on the European plan, with rooms $2.00 per person per day on the first floor; $1.00 per day per person on the second and third floors, with meals at any hour to order. It makes special prices per week or month for families, and these may be ascertained by writing to the address "SPENCER HOUSE, NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y." The visitor will do well to do this, as to think of remaining less than a week is a great mistake.

In summer, the great hotel—the finest at Niagara—is the INTERNATIONAL. The magnificent summer home is worthy of a visit for itself. It is four stories
