

capital than their personal labor, began to denude the soil of its primeval forests, and are now owners of extensive, well cultivated farms, and surrounded by all the substantial comforts of life. It has been his earnest desire to behold the industrious, but overburdened, classes from Great Britain, receiving the full meed of their laborious exertions here, where property is unencumbered with feudal burdens, undiminished by quit-rents or taxes, guarded by laws equally administered, and sustained by the tutelary arm of Great Britain. Bishops McDonell and McEacheven were amongst the first to induce emigration to Canada and Novascotia, by exerting their influence amongst the brave and hardy Highlanders, when quitting their native mountains, not to desert their ancient banner of St. Andrew, but take up their abode in a Colony of the British Crown. And notwithstanding one of the most abandoned men that ever disgraced the human name or race, has been exerting himself for years, to sever the connection between this Province and the Parent State, yet I believe the great bulk of the people are quite satisfied with the benevolent intentions of the British government towards this Colony; exemplified, as it is, in every measure that could tend to promote its prosperity, and crowned by the luminous instructions of Lord Glenelg to the present talented Governor of the Province, Sir F. B. Head, in the satisfactory declaration, that her unrivalled Constitution shall be firmly upheld. These base demagogues have fully satisfied the public of their revolutionary views, and are only supported by those whose aim is destruction, anarchy, and rebellion. They have sounded Alecto's horn in a peaceful and prospering Province, retarded its improvement, and checked emigration for some time, and despoiling and destroying, to the utmost of their power, the fruits of industry, and the hopes of advance-
