
was explained in
iii. 20).
Drawn from below

sacrifices.
ered for they use
ere distributed

ent Sanhedrim

e wood required

ntly preserved.
d was prepared and wine for the

for the daily

re taken off and

1. The Court or Chamber of Salt
m. The two Courts where the Levites' musical instruments were laid up.

1. The Beautiful Gate of twelve steps in the sacred fence separating the Court of the women from that of the Gentiles (Acts iii 2)
2. The Court of the women (2 Chron xxxi).
3. The Court of Wood, where wood was received in bulk.
4. The Court of the Nazarite (Numbers).
5. The Court where oil and wine were deposited.
6. The Court where the Lepers were examined by the Priests, before offering their sacrifices (Lev xiii)
7. The Pharisee and Publican (Luke xviii 10 13)
8. Four Heads on each side, between columns, for receiving gifts (Luke xxi 1).
9. A Court within a circle of columns where washed the Feast of Tabernacles (Deut. xvi 13).
10. The Pulpit of the High Priest, from which a part of the Law was read at the Feast of Propitiation (Lev xvi).
11. Ten Golden Candlesticks, five on the right and five on the left, in passing from east to west through the several Courts (2 Chronicles 4).

12. Two chests, one on either side of the Gate, Nicanor, where were placed the yearly half shekel tax by every Israelite, which was about 25 cents of our money (Exod xxx 11-15).
13. A Jew worshipping with his head covered.
14. The Gate Nicanor, with its fifteen steps, on which the Levites stood and sang the Psalms of degrees, 120-134 inclusive, at the Feast of Tabernacles.
15. A Priest with a silver trumpet calling the absent Priests and Levites to their morning duties.
16. The Court of the Israelites.
17. The Throne of the King.
18. The desks of the singers and instrumental musicians.
19. The Court of the Priests, which was raised above and separated from that of the Israelites by a cut in the rock of one and a half feet, and a light railing between columns surrounding it.
20. Two Priests, one with a silver trumpet and the other with a pot of incense.
21. The Great Brazen Altar of burnt offerings (2 Chronicles).
22. The Brazen Laver (2 Chronicles 4 6).

23. Two tables, one of silver and the other marble, on which were sinews to bind the Golden Vessels.
24. Ten tables, five on the right and five on the left (2 Chron 4).
25. Eight marble columns, on which to hang animals after they were slain.
26. Eight marble tables, on which the slain animals were laid to be prepared for the Altar.
27. Twenty brass rings, to which animals were fastened that were designed for sacrifice.
28. Ten Brazen Vessels, five on each side, where the sacrifices were washed before they were brought to the Altar (2 Chron iv 6).
29. Twelve steps leading to the Porch of the Temple.
30. The Porch of the Temple (1 Kings vi 3).
31. Two massive Corinthian brass columns, that on the right called Jachin, and that on the left Boaz (2 Chron iii 17).
32. A High Priest returning from the Temple, and where he stays to bless the people.
33. The Folding doors of the Temple (1 Kings vi 34).

34. The Holy Place of the Temple, sixty feet in length and thirty feet in width (1 Kings vi 2).
35. A massive Golden Candlestick, at the left on entering the Temple (Exod xxv 31-40).
36. The Golden Table of Shew Bread, on the right and opposite to the candlestick (Exod xxv 23-30).
37. The Golden Altar of Incense, in front of the entrance to the Holy of Holies (Exod xxxvi 6).
38. The dividing line between the Holy Place and the Holy of Holies, and where hung the Vail.
39. The Holy of Holies, which was thirty feet square (1 Kings vi 20).
40. The Golden Ark of the Covenant, in which at the time Solomon built the Temple, there was nothing but the two tables of stone on which the Law was written by God, and given to Moses (Exod xxv 16 16. 2 Chron v 10).
41. The Cherubims (1 Kings vi 23-27).
42. The Vail (Exod xxvi 31-33).
43. Additional buildings on either side and west end of the Temple, for the use of the Priests (1 Kings vi 5-6).
44. A passage way around the Temple for the Priests.