Premier Borden at the Arena Tonight. CONFIRMATION AT TRINITY EAST

Altho Trinity East Church is considered to be one of the very down town churches, it was crowded to the doors last night when the rite of Confirmation was conducted by the lord bishop of Toronto. The rector pre-sented a class of 68 men and women, about two-thirds being women. The singing of the large choir was excellent, and the hearty service itself explained why, this church in one of the down town districks is filled to the doors every Sunday night.

Dr. Orr Returns

Dr. Orr, manager of the Canadian National Exhibition, returned yesterday from a hunting iour in Great Britain and Europe for grand stand attractions for this year's fair. He bagged the Irish Guards' Band, the pictures from the gallery of the Arts Association in Germany, and a stage manager and wardrobe for the spectacular number, "The Burning of Rome." PEACE SUNDAY IN Occasion Marked by Addresses Pleading For Universal Disarmament.

THE GERMAN SITUATION

Rev. Dr. Hincks Says Great Diplomacy Is Needed to Avert War.

Peace Sunday, held on the anniversary of the Hague Conference, was widely commemorated in the pulpits of Toronto yesterday, and was marked by addresses looking towards the final disarmanient of the leading nations of the world.

Rev. Dr. Hincks, in a sermon at Broadway Tabernacle, considered the German situation as one requiring the ability of the greatest statesmen in the world today if war was to be averted. Lord Morley was at the present time in Germany in an effort to avert a crisis, and he asked the congregation to join him in prayer that he would be successful in his endeavor.

The contention was made by Rev. Byron E. Stauffer of Bond Street Congregational Church that if Great Britain, France and the United States were to disarm they could force Germany to follow their example.

Among the other churches, which held peace services were: Church of Epiphany, Rev. Canon Dyson Hague; Rev. R. J. Hutcheon, Unitarian Church; Rev. Liden Carter, Advent Christian Church; Rev. S. C. Graeb, Howard Park Presbyterian Church and Rev. W. J. Southam of All Saints Church.
