NURSERY

CONDUCTED BY Mrs. E. Murray

Childish Courtesy

If you expect your grown children to be mannerly and courteous, you must expect such conduct from your babies.

Children should be taught to greet their playmates quietly and politely. There is no need that children should behave at table in a slovenly, greedy or selfish manner.

The child who shrieks and screams, who argues and contradicts is an evidence of the home atmosphere. Children are like little mirrors; they reflect all that surrounds them.

SENATOR HOKE SMITH IN LIMELIGHT AGAIN

Wants President Wilson to Send Impertinent Message to Britain and France.

Special to The Toronto World. WASHINGTON, May 5.—Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia asked President Wilson today to inform Great Britain and France that unless orders in council were modified so that neutral shipping would not be interfered with, an embargo would be placed upon the shipment of arms and ammunition and foodstuffs from this country.

Senator Smith said that unless some action was taken he would introduce a resolution in congress when it met in December, providing for an embargo unless the order in council was modified. He also said that he favored congress in extra session to give President Wilson power to place an embargo on the shipment of arms, ammunition and foodstuffs.

The Georgia senator is primarily interested in the shipment of cotton, and he declared today that 200,000 bales of cotton consigned to neutral countries in northern Europe are now being detained by the British admiralty.

In Freedom's Cause

The sale of garden roots, to be held in the Parkdale Bowling Clubhouse, on Friday afternoon and evening, May 7, under the auspices of the Parkdale Chapter of the I. O. D. E., will last from 4 till 10. The proceeds will be used for the purchase of supplies for Base Hospital No. 4 (Toronto University staff).

Light refreshments will be sold and a fine lawn mower will be contested for. Enquiries may be directed to Mrs. Anderson, regent, 122 Close avenue, or the secretary, Mrs. McGill, 473 West Marion street, P. 2743.

All donations of roots are requested to be wrapped and labeled (if possible) and sent to the clubhouse on Thursday and Friday before 1 o'clock. The donors' cards may be enclosed.

Di Centralis Spectabilis (Bleeding Heart)

Every old-fashioned garden has a specimen of bleeding heart somewhere or other, in an odd corner or two. This is an old perennial that improves with age and knowledge.

One needs but to study the beautiful light green foliage, with its delicate shades of changing reds along the leaf stems, which support the graceful leafage, and to watch the slender arching raceme of dainty heart-shaped blossoms, so beautifully tined against the greenery, to know that bleeding heart has really not a sorrow in all the world despite the common name.

The root of this perennial is a strange, delicate, half-woolly affair, breaking at the least touch, which makes the transplanting of the plant no easy business. Indeed, it is not wise to attempt either the transplanting, nor the dividing of this root, in springtime, because springtime is the blooming time, and according to the common rule, no plant should be transplanted or divided close to its blossoming time.

Rose G. Brantford—We are intending to write several special articles on the peony just as soon as we get this garden root sale off our hands. In the meantime leave your peony roots alone.

Melville, Thornhill—Leave your wistaria vine alone. This vine is getting ready to send out its blossoms as fast as ever it can, and as pointed out above, should not be touched until after blossoms have gone.

EXHIBITION OF PHYSICAL TRAINING AT KEW BEACH

Kew Beach girls' gymnasium class gave a splendid display of physical drill in the Kew Beach Presbyterian Schoolroom on Tuesday evening. Under the able direction of Miss May E. Lord a very attractive program of gymnastic exercises and folk dances was completed and thoroughly enjoyed by an enthusiastic audience.

Several items were contributed in a finished manner by the All Saints' gymnasium girls, who also combined with the Kew Beach organization in the very effective grand march which concluded the display.

THEATRES

SWEETHEARTS—PRINCESS.

The sale of seats for the engagement of Christie Macdonald and Victor Herbert's delightful operetta, "Sweethearts," opens at the Princess Theatre today. The engagement, which opens next Monday night, is limited to one week.

"A CELEBRATED CASE." One of the greatest current dramatic successes in New York is the revival of "A Celebrated Case," made by Charles Frohman and David Belasco, with an all-star cast. Miss Haswell ever on the alert to procure the latest and best for her patrons has completed arrangements for the presentation of the same play at the Alexandra Theatre next week.

"OVER NIGHT" AT THE GRAND. Philip M. Bartholomew's popular and most amusing comedy, "Over Night," will be the offering at the Grand Opera House next week, being presented by the Phillips-Shaw players, who have secured the right to produce the comedy in Toronto at a large royalty. It will be given with a complete new scenic equipment, and as many of the members of the company have already played with the real company a finished performance may be looked for. Miss Lois Shaw will make her first appearance here this season in the role which gained for her flattering recognition from leading critics, that of Elsie Darling, the young wife. During the week at the Grand the regular Wednesday and Saturday matinees will be given.

RUSSIAN SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Echoes of the opening of the grande saison in Paris by the Russian Symphony Orchestra can be felt by travelled Canadians in the appearance of the great body of Russians in Massey Hall, May 15. Owing to the war the most famous of the orchestra is in America, and Montreal and Toronto have the season Ruse instead. For the past six years the orchestra has heralded spring in Paris. One of the symphonies played by this matchless organization in Toronto will be the "Eroica" of Beethoven.

This colorful, oriental work, typically Russian, created a furore when played last season at the Opera in Paris. The public clamored for it, and it played four times during six performances. Boxes were sold by auction at $400 each and stalls brought $250 francs each. Scriabin's "Poem of Fire," the most talked of musical composition of the 20th century, will also be played for the third time in the world with the play of colored light, a composer designed as a constituent element in the effect his music should have. The advance sale is at Massey Hall, which opened May 3, is large.

LOEW'S WINTER GARDEN.

Henry Thomer and Company, in a playlet entitled "Sidelights," showing which goes on behind the scenes in vaudeville, will top the bill at Loew's Winter Garden the coming week. El Ciego, the popular Toronto boy, premier xylophonist, who appeared here about four ago, will also be on this bill. Ciego was born and brought up in this city and is very well known here. Wormwood's animals, a big collection of comedy monkeys and acting dogs, will present the biggest and best animal act in vaudeville. Armstrong and Clarke, famous song writers, will appear, singing their latest melodies and offering a blackface comedy act. Memmett and Sidell, who style themselves "two boys and six tables," will offer comedy "knockabout act, finishing with a table fall and Bert Melrose. Tom Mahoney, Irish comedian, presenting his version of a meeting of a hod-carriers' union, and El Mina, sharply beauty on a flying trapeze, will complete the bill.

THE HIPPODROME.

Lowell and Esther Drew will headline the bill at the Hippodrome next week in their own original comedy offering "At the Soda Fountain." Fred and Annie Pelot have a comedy juggling act that is said to be far above the ordinary. Bob Warren has a knack of telling stories—both old and new—that wins immediate appreciation. Norton and Noble will be a feature of the bill in their clever singing and dancing offering, while the closing episodes of "Runaway June" contain many interesting scenes. Moore, O'Brian and Cormack sing many new songs, and their voices are said to be very good. The two Silvertornas have an out-of-the-ordinary wire offering, into which they inject a lot of brillis. Feature films and laughable photo-plays complete the bill.

WOMEN WILL CARE FOR THE WOUNDED

Mrs. William Douglas Inaugurates Scheme to Benefit Canadian Contingent.

OTHERS INTERESTED

Committee Has Been Formed in Toronto to Carry Project Thru.

A project for the benefit and comfort of the Canadian contingents in France, inaugurated by Mrs. William Douglas, of London, England, herself a Canadian, and recently on a visit here, has been warmly taken up by a number of prominent Toronto women, who are helping by their subscriptions and by offers of personal services.

Among those actively interested are: Mrs. H. D. Warren, Mrs. Christopher Robinson, Mrs. J. E. W. Ross, Mrs. J. H. Blake, Mrs. W. Hamilton Merritt, Mrs. F. W. Hayward, Mrs. Alley, Mrs. Chadwick, Mrs. R. A. Lyon and Mrs. Herbert Eurnham. These ladies with others will form Mrs. Douglas' committee in Toronto.

Given Every Comfort. The scheme is threefold: 1. To receive convalescents on their discharge from the hospitals to be cared for in home-like surroundings until ready to return to active service, and also those having short furloughs.

2. A refreshment canteen, with preparation and reading rooms, equipped with papers, magazines, games, music, writing materials etc. In these two departments minimum charges will be made.

3. Gratuitous distribution of refreshments and comforts to the wounded passing thru the neighboring railway stations, and visiting the sick and wounded (if permitted) in the nearest hospital.

Business Secured. Mrs. Douglas, who has lived for many years in France, is now at Dieppe, accompanied by Miss Gertrude Tate and Miss Mary Burnham. She has secured a very suitable house there, and has completed all preliminary arrangements. These ladies will shortly be joined by Miss Jean Graham, Miss Hirschfelder, Mrs. F. C. Chadwick, Miss Hudson, Miss Doris Rowland, Miss Phoebe Wright, of Ottawa, and Miss Gavigler. All of these ladies are paying their own expenses, and many are contributing generously to the funds of the work.

Contributions, no matter how small, are urgently needed, as the preliminary outlays are heavy. They will be received and acknowledged by Mr. James B. O'Brien, Traders Bank Building, who has kindly consented to act as honorary treasurer.

TOWELS FOR HOSPITALS.

The Veterans of 1866 Chapter, I. O. D. E., held two very successful afternoon meetings (singing) at the home of Miss Stewart, 386 Howland avenue, and Mrs. Code, 332 Davenport road, the result being a total of nearly 300 towels as contributions to the University Base Hospital.

Interesting photo-plays of subjects of current interest complete an excellent bill.
