

NOTES FROM EVERYWHERE.

A WRIT of summons was issued last week by Macrae & Macrae, newspaper delivery agents, of Toronto, against the News Printing Co., claiming $2,700 damages for breach of a contract for the delivery of newspapers.

W. H. Leadley, of the Guelph Herald's editorial staff, has been laid up with quinsy.

H. N. Barby, business manager of the Guelph Herald, is summering in Muskoka.

A. H. Howells has sold his interest in the New Westminster News, B.C., to J. Theo. Wilson.

The Niagara Falls News is rapidly growing under the management of David H. Waltho.

Dr. James Kirby, editor of the Legal News, was among the recent departures for England by the Toronto.

A new paper, called the Sun, has been started at Grenfell, by the Grenfell Printing Co.

Thos. H. Sears, editor of Progress, Preston, Ont., has been appointed Grand Trunk ticket agent for that place.

I. C. Stewart, editor of the Maritime Grocer, has gone to his home in Guysboro' county for a short vacation.

R. S. Bell, editor of the Belleville Intelligencer, has gone to Europe for the benefit of his health.

Dave Hastings is a Hamilton delegate to the annual meeting of the International.

Alfred E. Miller, of the London Free Press, and Mrs. Miller are spending their holidays at the home of Mrs. Miller's father, near Leadbury.

D. McGillicuddy, of the Goderich Signal, and Robt. Holmes, of the Clinton New Era, were in Toronto last week. Subscribers in Huron County must be paying up.

The report emanating from Montreal that Hon. Jos. Royal had purchased Le Canada, of Ottawa, and was about to assume the editorship, is unfounded.

Fred. Cook, the Ottawa representative of the Empire, was one of the delegates to the Masonic Grand Lodge meeting at Hamilton.

Frank P. Shore, of White Oak, has accepted the position of live stock editor on the Canadian Live Stock and Farm Journal, published by the Bryant Co., Toronto.

Rev. Dr. J. B. McCullough, editor of the Philadelphia Methodist, and one of the best known Methodist clergymen in the Philadelphia Conference, died in July.

On Monday, July 23rd, the St. John Gazette was six years old. It celebrated the occasion by permanently adopting the eight-page form. Apparently it is not sleeping.

A. R. Hibbert, traveler for Jos. Doust, law stationer, Toronto, committed suicide in London the other day. Dissipation seems to have been the cause.

A Telegram's special says "The proofs of the blue book now in preparation, containing a shorthand report of the proceedings of the Colonial Conference, have been revised by Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, and revised proofs will be given to the press in a few days. Mr. Bowell seems to be establishing a strict censorship over the book, and no 'unwise' utterances will be found in the volume as issued." Mr. Bowell is as competent to edit as a large percentage of the multitude of partisans who fill the editorial chairs of Canadian daily and weekly newspapers.

T. A. Spink, formerly foreman of the News-Advertiser composing room and now of the Inland Sentinel, returned to the interior yesterday after a short visit to the coast.—Vancouver News-Advertiser.

Seaforth has been created a Customs port of entry, and F. G. Neelin, of the Sun, has been appointed and sworn in collector. The Sun will hereafter be conducted as an independent journal.

A lilliputian electric light has been invented for the benefit of newspaper reporters. It is fastened to the end of a pencil, so that the reporter may carry his own light with him, and be able to make his notes even in the darkness.

Rev. George Simpson, of the Chicago Interior, passed through Toronto last week on his way home after a three weeks' holiday in Muskoka. Quite a number of United States journalists find Canada a nice summering place.

The first issue of the Prince Albert Advocate has been received. It is to be independent in politics and devoted to the welfare of the district of Saskatchewan. C. R. Stovel is manager and editor.

Suits were filed last week at Osgoode Hall by Edmund E. Sheppard against the Toronto News for $57,440. One of these is for alleged libel. The damages asked in this case are $10,000. The alleged libel was contained in the recent special

Linen Papers

We have always in stock a full line of the following papers which are unsurpassed in value. . . .

Mercantile Linen (Cream Laid)

Clear Lake Linen (Cream Laid)

Depere Linen (White Laid)

Regal Linen Bond

Burmese Bond

Tinted Bond

Besides these regular goods we always have some specials and retros at low figures.

It will pay printers to see samples of these lines before buying.

PROMPT SHIPMENT AND CAREFUL ATTENTION TO LETTER ORDERS.

CANADA PAPER CO.

15 Front St. West, TORONTO.
378 Craig Street, MONTREAL.

LIMITED