

ation of Victoria from New South Wales, xi, 140; Discovery of gold, xi, 143; Eureka stockade, xi, 149; Responsible government, xi, 155; Recent history, xi, 161; Beginnings of settlement in Queensland, xi, 166; Explorations, xi, 171; Separation of Queensland from New South Wales, xi, 178; Recent history, xi, 181; Foundation of the province of South Australia, xi, 190; Representative government, xi, 202; Discovery and settlement of Tasmania, xi, 209; Bushranging troubles and native difficulty, xi, 222; Abolition of transportation, xi, 232; Responsible government, xi, 242; Western Australia from first settlement to abolition of transportation, xi, 253; Responsible Government, xi, 265; Gold discoveries, xi, 278; Exploration, xi, 280; Industrial history from 1788 to 1821, xi, 309; Second industrial period, xi, 324; Third industrial period, xi, 340; Fourth industrial period, xi, 363; Fifth industrial period, xi, 376; Sixth industrial period, xi, 382-405; The great strike of 1890 and the Broken Hill strike of 1892, xi, 406; Federation, xi, 417; The Australian Commonwealth, xi, 433; General progress of Australia and Tasmania, xi, 444; Education, xxiii, 384.

Austria, Acquired by Rudolph, Count of Hapsburg, A. D. 1278, vi, 10; The position of the country in European politics, vi, 17; Defeated, but not unduly humiliated by the peace of Luneville in 1801, vi, 112; During the peace repairs her losses and consolidates her resources, vi, 116; In 1801 maintains an army of 300,000 men, vi, 116; Natural resources, vi, 115, 116; Army recruited by ballot for conscription during Napoleonic Wars, vi, 117; Patriotic spirit encourages Voluntary Enlistment, vi, 117; Not unfavorable to Napoleon's appointment as First Consul for life, vi, 125; Guaranteed assistance by England, joins coalition against France in 1805, vi, 109; Opposition to Napoleon in 1809, vi, 306; xvii, 75; Improved position in 1809, vi, 325; Her hopes of Prussian assistance disappointed, vi, 327; Action regarding the invasion of Russia, 1811-12, vi, 343; Offers mediation after Lützen and Bautzen in 1813, vi, 344; The terms rejected by Napoleon, vi, 345; Joins the Allies on August 10, 1814, vi, 358; Myrrin provinces and access to sea regained in 1814, vi, 370; Unrest at Vienna during 1849, vi, 508; Francis Joseph becomes Emperor, December 2, 1849, vi, 508; Joins allies at Sebastopol, xvii, 285; War with France and Sardinia, 1859, xvii, 294-319; War with Prussia, 1866, xvii, 377-402; French plan to induce Austria and Italy to abandon their neutrality, xvii, 412.

B.

Bagrattion, Prince, Despatched to Hollabrunn, xvii, 59; On plan of Austerlitz battle, xvii, 54; Opposed by Lannes and Murat, xvii, 56, 57; In command against French invasion of Russia, xvii, 106; In province of Minsk, xvii, 109; Retreat to Smolensk intercepted by Davout, xvii, 110; Reaches Smolensk, xvii, 111.

Baird, Lieutenant-General Sir David, Sent from England with expedition in 1805 to seize the Cape Colony, x, 93; On January 4, 1806, arrives at Table Bay, x, 93; On January 8, 1806, defeats the Dutch forces at Blueberg, x, 94; From January, 1806, to January, 1807, is at the head of the Cape government, x, 97.

Balboa, Vasco Nunez De, In 1513 discovers and names the Pacific Ocean, xiv, 114; The first to cross Central America, xiv, 101.

Bank of the United States, The first established by Hamilton, (1791), xv, 48, 49; Loses charter in 1811, xx, 137, 138; v, 64; The second bank chartered (1816), v, 82, 83; Bad management of it, v, 105, 106; Jackson's fight against it, v, 162-164, 165-169; Its recharter vetoed, xx, 303-305; Removal of deposits, xx, 310-315; The end of it, (1836), xx, 316; Clay's struggle to re-establish it, v, 191-193; National banking system established, (1863), v, 312.

Bantus, Clans in South Africa invade Capetown in 1779, x, 64; Again attack Capetown in 1789, x, 64; Peace is arranged with them in 1793 after another massacre of the colonists, x, 64; Chief Moshesh fixes his residence on Thaba Bosgo Mountain in 1824, x, 181; Chief Makoma driven over the Tyumle in 1829, x, 196; British expedition sent in 1840 to protect Fantu tribes against Dutch Colonists of Natal, x, 250; Missionaries are driven out of Bantu country in 1865, x, 378; South African forces make unsuccessful attempt in 1867 to subdue Bantus, x, 378.

Barbary States, United States engages in war with the country, (301-3) v, 23, 24, 42, 67; War again threatened in 1815, v, 84.