Either this compilation or the preceding title was the first book or pamphlet printed in Texas.

The introduction to the first edition, pp. 3-24, is addressed "To the Settlers in what is called 'Austin's Colony,' in Texas," and the advertisement, which is signed and dated, S. F. Austin, San Felipe de Austin, 1st November, 1829, states that the "translations have been carefully made by Mr. S. M. Williams, and myself." The errata leaf contains a "Translation of an Official Letter from Governor Martinez, to S. F. Austin, which was omitted by mistake—it ought to have come in after No. 1, on page 29."

The Constitution of the Republic of Mexico, and of the State of Coahuila & Texas. Containing also an abridgement of the laws of the general and state governments, relating to colonization. With sundry other laws and documents not before published, particularly relating to Coahuila and Texas. The documents relating to the Galveston Bay and Texas Land Company; the grants to Messrs. Wilson and Exter, and to Col. John Dominguez. With a description of the soil, climate, productions, local and commercial advantages of that interesting country. New-York, Ludwig & Tolefree, Printers. 1832. 8vo, pp. 113. C., NYP., UTEX. 94946

Improved title of no. 16084, vol. 4.
