

as may be best calculated to prevent such prosecutions in future, and powerfully to protect the invaluable blessings of religious liberty granted by your Honorable House to his Majesty's Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada; and your Honors' petitioner as in duty bound, will continue to pray that the Almighty God and Father of the Lord Jesus Christ would vouchsafe to your Honorable House the choicest blessings of wisdom, protection and glory.

Your Honors'

most dutiful and

obedient servant,

CLARK BENTON:
