BEANSHOP (C.). (Vide "Vermoelen de Theewinkel.") BEARCROFT (C.), Bere croft (A.S.), Barley field. "Bere" signifies both barley and bear. When connected with "croft," "ham," "worth," &c., it would seem to be intended for barley; as a corn-farm was called "bereton" and "berewic," whence BARTON, BERWICK; but with "ford," "washe," "wood," bears are probably meant. BEAUCHATEAU, de (£.), of the Handsome castle. BEAUCORPS, de (f.), of the Handsome body. BEAUHARNAIS, de (f.), of the Fine harness; i.e., armor. BEAUPERE (2. N.), Friar, or Priest. Such is the probable signification of the name "Beaupere" of Cornwall. In France it would now signify Father-in-law. BEAWPELL (A. N.), Fine skin, or fur dress. BEAWSHIN (A. N.), Fine shin. (Compare "Brownshin," or Fair skin?) BEC-DE-LIEVRE, de (f.), of the Hare-lip. BECK (E. & D.), Brook. . . BEEK, op ter (D.), at the Brook. BEEK, van der (D.), of the Brook. BEEKMAN (D.), Beckmann (G.), Brookman. BEELDSNYDER (D.), Carver, Sculptor. BEER, de (D.), the Bear. BEEREKAMP (D.), Bear field. BEERENBURG (D.), Bears' castle. BEERESTEYN (D.), Bear castle. BEGEER (D.), Desire. BELCASTEL, de (f.), of Fine castle. 200 BELINFANTE (5.), Fairchild. BELKNAP (A. N.), Bel knape, Fair page. BERESFORD (C.), Bear's ford. (Vide "Bearcroft.") BEREHAM (A.S.), Barley home. BEREWASHE (E.), Bear track. "Wash" (prov.), a narrow track through a wood; also a lane through which water runs,a marsh, bog.

BEREWOOD (C.), Bear wood.
