

Article 73.—In addition to the details which, by the 7th <sup>All vessels to report at the Wharfinger's Office.</sup> Article of the By-laws of the said Commissioners, the Master or person in charge of every vessel arriving in the Harbour, is bound to insert in the report by him required to be made under the said By-law, every such Master or person in charge of any such vessel shall also insert in such report a description of the rig of such vessel, the name of such vessel, and of her master or captain, the place from whence and the date when such vessel sailed, the name of the consignee thereof, and of the pilot thereof; the number of men employed therein, the number of passengers carried thereby, and the name of the steamer (if any) which towed such vessel into harbour.

Article 74.—All vessels lying at the wharves within the Harbour shall have their yards topped up, their booms and outriggers rigged in, their jibbooms and flying jibbooms rigged in as far as practicable, their studding sail boom irons taken off, their sprit sail yards laid fore and aft, and their anchors secured so as to avoid doing damage to other vessels. <sup>Vessels to avoid damaging other vessels.</sup>

Article 75.—No coals shall be discharged from any vessel except upon such wharf as shall be indicated for that purpose by the Harbour Master, and when discharged, such coals shall be immediately removed and taken away from such wharf by the owner or consignee thereof as fast as they shall be landed thereon; and no appointment of a berth, or permission to land the cargo of any vessel at any wharf, shall entitle the owner or person in charge of such vessel to land coals opposite such berth or upon such wharf, unless permission shall also have been granted by the Harbour Master to land also thereon as hereinbefore provided. <sup>Coals to be landed only where permitted by Harbour Master.</sup>

INTERPRETATION.

Article 61.—The word "vessel," when made use of in the foregoing regulations, is to be understood as comprehending and meaning rafts and every other description of floating vessel; the words "working days" are to be understood as comprehending and meaning days on which
