WILD WEST SHOW IS AT

at 9.45 a.m. and Reach Centre of City by 10,30.

Long before business will have been resumed to-day, the Young Buffalo Wild West Show will have transferred its hundreds of horses and immense amount of show paraphernalia to Dufferin Park, where it will begin a two days' engagement with an afternoon and night performance to-day.

The big frontier street parade of the Young Buffalo Show will leave Dufferin Park at 9.45 and will reach the business section of the city about 10.20 this morning. Indians in their finest paint and feathers will ride beside their old time enemies—the U.S. cowboys. The street demonstration is said to be a most unique and elaborate affair, differing entirely from the regular circus pageants.

Few people who visit—the tepees of the Indians with a Wild West Show realize that their red brothers and sisters have so great a number of strange customs and mannerisms that must be said and manner customs and mannerisms that must be carried out, even when traveling. For instance, when a young Sloux brave takes unto himself a wife and incidentally a mother-in-law, he has the advantage of his white brothers many ways. He considers his mother-in-law so far beneath his station in life that he does not talk to her directly, but must carry on all conversation with her through his wife. But, although the Indian is queer in Special Train leaves Union Station this way, he is in reality very kind, 7.30 a.m. Prices and particulars and old people are taken care of by the Young men of the tribe. For days and weeks the young bucks hunt and fish to lay up a supply of food for the old and helpless.

In war times the old men and women are sent on ahead of the main war party, so that they can be better HAMILTON 50c. Return apply to men are sent on ahead of the main protected from pursuers.
