St. Pauls Lose Two Good Fellows.
St. Paul's Catholic Library and Athletic Association regret the loss of two of their most distinguished members, viz. Messrs. Dowling and Hallman.

Mr. Dowling has accepted a position with a theatrical company in New York, while Mr. Hallman is also going to the city for a few days' stay, and will leave for his home in Ireland, the land of his birth.

The departure of these members will be a sore touch to the club, as they have both worked laboriously for its success. They have also taken an active part in sports of any kind which the club participated in. Their clubmates sincerely regret the loss of these two members, and hope that they will be among them again.

The members of St. Paul's C. & L. A. wish the two departing members a future of unlimited success, and one day hope that they will be among them again.

Weather fair, track fast.
