YONGE AND QUEEN STREETS, DECEMBER 8, 1896.

Seventeen Days Before Christmas.

The crowds are beginning to thicken and an epidemic of enthusiasm has struck the store from basement to roof. There has never been in Canada such tremendous variety of Holiday goods with thousands of people streaming through the store and blocking up the entrances. If you want to see goods in quiet come before noon, and if you live out of town shop by mail. (Mail order customers are reminded that two weeks is all the time they have for Christmas shopping. We're prompt in filling all orders, particularly just now, but some people persist in waiting till the best goods are sold. The extent of our mail order business is such that tens of thousands send to us for whatever they want, and we can't afford to have a single one disappointed.)

Those who send this week will fare best in every way. This list will help you decide what you want:

Rich Furs

Hundreds of presents this year will be made from the more serviceable and useful lines—and what better could one select, or what better appreciated, than something nice to wear in Furs! We'll vouch there's no fur house in the country where you can buy from so large and abundantly assorted stock as ours. Select this week. Novelties are being picked up in a hurry, trade never was brisker, and there's no other way of accounting for it than that we have the best for the least money—for there's mighty little sentiment in business these days.

A handsome, stylish, up-to-date Seal Coat—the most elegant of all for presents—175, 200, 225

Fine large glossy curl Persian Lamb Coats—85, 100

Very stylish—beautifully made—

Here's a little list of suggestions in Furs and Scarfs—the very newest—and some of them over a Five-Dollar Bill:

Mink Scarf, 27-in. long, fine dark, 3.50

Electric Seal Scarf, 27-in. long, 3.50

Squirrel Tail Scarf, black or brown, regular $5, for 3.50

Fur Scarf, 27-in. long, fine, spring head and tail, regular $5, for 3.50

Red Seal Scarf, 27-in. long, 4.00
