London, Jan. 14.-The American Society check the great notorlety obtained by Col. says: George Gouraud, who, of his own notion, assumed the leadership of the American wing of the Angle-American movement in London. Col. Gouraud first came forward on the occasion of the arrival of Gemeral Lord Kitchener of Khartoum in England. The colonel went to Dover to greet him, and is the most conspicuous figure in the kimetoscope pictures of the event shown in the music halls. Since then he has deluged, the papers with letters, writing always in the name of the United States army or of the Americans in London, signing a string of titles to his name, of which the first one is, "one time assistant inspector-General of Artillery of the staff of General Sherman." The Mailers Enjoy Themselves. The Mailers Enjoy Themselves.

The annual sleighing party and dinner of the Mailers' Union was held on Saturday at the Dutch Farm, East Toronto, and was attended by about 100 members and their friends. On the arrival of the guests a sumptions dinner was in readiness. There was a long and interesting toast list, which gave the guests an opportunity to air their cloquence. Mr. Alex, Jeffrey replied to the toast of the "Pressmen's Union," Mr. Fred Kirkpatrick to "Toronto Typographical Union," and A. Mitchell to the "Stereotypers' Union." Songs were sung by Messrs. Hussy, James Fiddament and others.
