Patriotic Songs Set the Music Hall Audiences Wild With Fervor.

Impossibility of Enforcing Sealskin Exclusion-Erratic Mail Service -Gorgeous Wedding Presents.

Special Cable Letter to The Advertiser. London, Jan. 22.—There has been a quick and general indorsement in all parts of the country of the firm declaration made by the chancellor of the exchequer, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, at Swansea, on Monday last, setting that Emperor William will transfer the determined, "even at the cost of war," that the door of Chinese commerce should not be shut to Great Britain. The wave of patriotism now sweeping over the land, finds an echo in every public assemblage, where any allusion to Great Britain's attitude is enthusiastically applauded, while patriaudiences

Mr. Herbert Henry Asquith (the former home secretary), as spokesman of the opposition, made it clear that the Liberals cordially indorsed the government's position, and the speech of the When commander-in-chief of the army (Lord Wolseley), at the banquet in London on Thursday, when he asserted that if Great Britain declared war tomorrow she could have two of the finest and most fully equipped army corps in readiness at any British port before ships could be prepared to embark them, has also had a reassuring effect, while the decided improvement in the outlook of the Indian rebellion has been a great relief to the government. SUPPORTED BY THE PRESS. The newspapers of London and the British provinces are practically unanimous in approving the policy of the government in their editorial comments. The Times points out, apropos of the reported opposition of Russia to the proposed British loan to China, that the attitude of Great Britain in no way depends upon whether her offer of a loan is or is not accepted, as in any case Great Britain will "stand on treaty rights, and take great care to preserve to our commerce all the advantages which it can justly claim." The Times adds: "We will not have it denied to us, either by the establishment of customs stations or regulations favorable to foreign nations hostile to ourselves. This right we mean

According to the postal authorities here, this complaint is equally applicable to the American postal officials. They cite an example this week, for the mail sent by the New York was not delivered until Friday, while much of it might have been carried by the Trave, sailing on Jan. 12, and arriving on Wednesday last with only a few specially directed letters. Besides, the Teutonic, which also sailed on Jan. 12, brought no mails. LEEDS' LAMENTATION. The annual report of the Leeds chamber of commerce deplores the state of the British textile industries in 1897, saying: "All the improvement of the spring having been fatally checked by the Dingley tariff law, followed by the engineering strike, which must necessarily result in some permanent loss to trade, in admining to the loss already experienced." EMPEROR WILLIAM'S TRIP TO PALESTINE. The sultan has determined to send 15,000 soldiers to Palestine, in honor of Emperor William's visit there. RAILWAY RUMBLINGS. ervices of Five Stratford Drivers Dispensed With. Stratford Herald: Last night a report gained currency that five G. T. R. engineers resident in Stratford had een notified that their services were no longer required. Some weeks ago the men had been suspended for the usual 30 days for not responding to the summons to go out with their trains on some occasion during the Christmas holidays, sickness and indisposition being the reasons alleged. Today the Herald learned that the report of dismissal was correct, the or-der being made directly from headquarters to the men themselves, the local authorities claiming to have no knowledge of it whatever.
