Peculiar Situation Arose Yesterday-Good Prices at Union Stock Yards.

VEAL RECEIPTS LIGHT

Sale of Sheep and Lambs Was Not Enough to Constitute a Market.

Receipts of live stock at the Union Stock Yards on Tuesday were 42 cars, 585 cattle, 871 hogs, 40 sheep, 75 caives and two horses.

Butchers' Cattle—About 600 were on sale. Not more than ten per cent, of these could be called finished quality. Cattle bought and classed as good today, a few years ago would be bought as medium, and so on down the category. Many drovers seem to be afraid to let the other fellow get them, thus helping the farmer to get more than his cattle are worth in many instances. The result is that the salesmen on the market are in hot water, because they cannot get enough money to pull Mr. Drover out of the hole; thescattle are held over for the next day, which ten to one will be worse. This was the trouble in many instances on Monday. The few good and choice cattle yesterday sold at values equal to those paid on Monday, which are away high. Common and medium were called by many of the dealers as being barely steady.

Stockers and Feeders—While the run

Stockers and Feeders—While the run of these was not large, they were being eagerly looked after, as there were more buyers, and prices remained steady, but of these was not large, they were being eagerly looked after, as there were more buyers, and prices remained steady, but very firm.

Milkers and Springers—Deliveries of these were not large and prices were firmer, selling as high as $110 for the best cow on sale.

Veal Calves—Receipts light and values stronger, as choice veals are again selling at $11 per cwt.

Sheep and Lambs—Not enough to constitute a market, and what there were sold at very high values.

Hogs—About 1000 hogs all told were on sale yesterday. Prices ranged as follows; $11,50, $11,55, $11,60 and $11,65 weighed off cars, at least we had sales reported to us at all these prices.

The packers quoted $11,40 off cars; $11 fed and watered and $10,65 f.o.b. cars.

A picture taken in front of the Aldwych Theatre, London, during the time of the Zeppelin raid last September. Friends of Derwent Hall Caine leaving after the performance of "Pete." Mr. Caine is a member of the Royal Naval Reserve, but was not allowed to serve owing to an injury to his leg, received in a sporting carnival two years ago. This injury does not show in his stage work, but caused the strict naval authorities to reject him when he reported for service.

One of the interesting features of the picture is the billboard, which shows back of the automobile. It will be noticed that the night performances are billed to start at 7 p.m.. This is because the city is in darkness during the late hours, all street lights being darkened on account of possible ir raids by the Germans.
