Car 55 left the rails at the foot of King street, between 8 and 9 o'clock last evening, stopping traffic for about fifteen minutes.
Little Robert Clayton, who was sentenced recently by Judge Ritchie to four years in the reformatory, on charges of theft, was today taken to the institution.
Joseph Murphy, who has been in jail for about two months, was released today and taken to St. Martin's by Rev. Father Poirier of St. Martin's parish.
Pilot Joseph Doherty went to Halifax last night to bring the C. P. R. steamship Empress of Britain to this port. She is expected at Halifax this evening.
The police have reported Allan McCavour, Fred Simmons, Joseph Collins and Dick Haley for playing hockey and shouting on Prince William street in front of the C. P. R. telegraph office on the night of Dec. 5th.
The dredge Galveston is at present working at the Bullait wharf, as both sides of the I. C. R. pier are occupied. The western side by the Allan liner Garmanian and the eastern side by the Tunisian.
Marlborough Lodge, No. 207, Sons of England, will meet on Thursday evening, 6th inst., when the election of officers for 1907 will take place. A full attendance requested, as other business of importance will be transacted.
Thomas Cook, who was arrested Thursday as a common drunk and sentenced yesterday to ten days in jail, has in his possession a third class ticket for Liverpool by steamer Paragon of the Allan line, and arrangements for his departure are in progress.
Manifests for the following products were received at the customs house this morning: 22 cars pork products, 12 cars hard, car cotton, 8 cane dooms, 3 cars lumber and one car lumber, for shipment by winter port steamers to the United Kingdom.
The Millerville ferry steamer, Maggie Miller, is caught in the ice off the mill wharf, near Millerville. The ferry started for Indian town for the purpose of laying up when the cold snap set in, but was caught in the ice and will probably remain in her present position until the spring.
Detective Hannahan, of Halifax, passed through the city this morning, en route on his way home to Halifax. He was accompanied by a man named Henry Hasbrouck, who is wanted in Halifax on a charge of theft. Hannahan went through St. John a few days ago on his way to Boston, where he had received word his man was to be found, and having secured him he brought him back.
Signal Station Master Morton says that the article in a morning paper, dealing with signals, is misleading. The hoisting of private flags comes under private agreement, and that he did not make the price, but that a leading shipping house has continued the hoisting of their flag, at the exact figures given the late signal master, and that he thinks it only fair to have the one price.
The bay steamer Bear River, Captain Woodworth, arrived in port from Digby, N. S., this morning. This is the steamer that towed the American schooner Rebecca W. Haddock off the shore at Joggins, N. S., near Digby. Captain Woodworth said he had little trouble in towing the vessel off, and that when she floated he towed her to the Digby wharf, where she is now. The vessel is not much damaged. The tug Lord Wolesey went across the bay this morning to tow the vessel to this port.

BONNY DOON IN BAD SHAPE
WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Captain Carden, of the revenue cutter Grechen, which assisted the Mohawk in an attempt to save the barkentine Bonny Doon, ashore near Chatham, Mass., has notified the treasury department that the vessel, although floated, is in a very bad condition, but that he expected to land the crew at Vineyard Haven today. He says no lives were lost.

MONTREAL, Dec. 6.—(Special)—Eastern Nov. 11, to 11.5; Western, Nov. 12 to 12.5. Butter—creams good to fine, 25 to 25.5; fancy 25.5 to 26.
Storm drum No. 3 was hoisted at 2.30 o'clock today, indicating the probability of a heavy gale at first from the eastward.

SENATE OF THE U. N. B.
FREDERICTON, N. B., Dec. 6.—(Special).—The annual meeting of the University Senate was held here this morning, those present being Dr. Inch, Premier Tweedie, J. H. Barry, K. C., J. D. Hazen, Chancellor Jones, Principal Bridges and Registrar Coy. A deputation from St. Andrew's Society of Fredericton was heard in regard to exempting from tuition fees the beneficiary of St. Andrew's scholarship at the University. They claimed that there was an understanding of this kind at the time the scholarship was created. A committee was appointed to investigate the matter and report. President Foster, of the Alumni Society, attended the meeting and asked the senate to recommend that a joint committee from the senate, Alumni Society and faculty be appointed with power to consider the question of honorary degrees and recommend to the senate from time to time. The financial statement for the year, which was read and adopted, showed a surplus of $1,300 on the ordinary expenditures of the year. Last year the surplus amounted to $700.
Several communications were read, including one from Prof. Bailey, who has been on the university staff forty-six years and is to receive a pension equal to two-thirds of his salary from the Carnegie funds.

AN OBJECTION FROM HALIFAX
OTTAWA, Dec. 6.—(Special).—All the Nova Scotia members, accompanied by Mr. Finlay, M. P. of Halifax, and the mayor of Halifax, waited on Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. Rodolph Lemieux this forenoon and asked that the government see that the terms of the mail contract with the Allans be carried out by the C. P. R. Empress steamers at Halifax.
The C. P. R. steamer Empress is not at the wharf but sent the mails ashore on a tugboat. There is a delay of nearly three hours in landing the mails as compared with the Allans boats landing at the wharf and delivering the mails from the steamer. They asked that the terms of the contract, which called for the expeditious delivery of the mails be carried out.
Sir Wilfrid Laurier asked that the delegates put the details in writing.

WELL PLEASED WITH SYSTEM
The five visiting British school teachers visited the Alexandra and the High Schools this morning, accompanied by Dr. H. Bridges and Inspector Carter, and they expressed themselves as well pleased with the system adopted in our local schools.
The teachers visited the Alexandra School first and spent an hour there inspecting the work of the scholars, the classes, note-books, etc. Prior to that the pupils assembled in the exhibition hall, where they sang "Our Own Canadian Hymns" and "God Save the Queen."
The party also visited the High School where they remained about an hour inspecting the work of the scholars, the classes, note-books, etc. They then visited the St. Vincent's Convent and the Victoria School.

MAY BUILD AN AUTO GARAGE
James Paterson, of Indian town, stated to the Times this morning that there is a possibility of an automobile garage being built in the central part of the city next spring.
Mr. Paterson says that he has been approached by David Roberts, the late superintendent of the street railway, who asked him to form a partnership with him in connection with the automobile business.
Mr. Paterson said that the scheme of having garages built successfully in small towns even, and he did not see why it could not be successfully carried out in this city. Mr. Paterson stated that St. John is becoming a great resort for summer tourists, many of whom travel in their cars and he thinks that the conducting of a garage would be a successful business.

REMANDS DEALT WITH
A bunch of remanded prisoners were brought before Judge Ritchie about midday for trial on charges of theft, assault, etc. Henry Gay, charged with begging, was remanded and again remanded for lack of evidence.
The prisoners of Springfield, Mass., were charged with drunkenness and fined $5 or thirty days in jail.
John Conlon, another drunk, was fined $5 or thirty days in jail.
Charles Curran, aged man, charged with drunkenness, pleaded illness. He was sent to jail and Dr. Curran summoned. He will be fined $5 or one month in jail.
Mary Glase, colored, charged with intoxication was let out on a suspended sentence of $5 or two months in jail.
Edward Hot, a drunk was fined $5 or thirty days.
Wm. McIntyre and Patrick Kelly, also charged with drunkenness were allowed out on suspended sentences.

PRESENTATION TO E. L. WILLIS
E. LeRoy Willis, the former proprietor of the Dufferin Hotel, was presented last evening by the new firm of Foster, Bond & Co., who have acquired the hotel, with a handsome cut glass bowl. The presentation was made in a quiet manner, only a few invited guests being present to drink the health of Mr. Willis. Earlier in the week Mr. Willis was also made the recipient of a handsome mink fur lined coat, by C. M. Bostwick, the owner of the hotel building.

THE EMPRESS OF BRITAIN
HALIFAX, N. S., Dec. 6.—(Special).—The mail steamer Empress of Britain is expected to reach here about nine o'clock, but may be later. A snowstorm is now in progress and the transfer of the mails may take longer than that of the Empress of Ireland as it is much larger, consisting of 1177 bags and 453 baskets. Arrangements have been made for two lighters to go alongside in the stream for the mails.
