FREDERICTON NEWS

Fredericton, N. B., Feb. 7.—The York and Sunbury Foultry Show is now in full swing. Seth Jones of Sussex completed judging last evening. Among the largest prize winners were Beaman and Stewart of Moncton, Mrs. E. Kyle of Sussex and Dr. Frank Brown of Centreville.

Miss Louise J. Davis died at her home here this morning after a lingering illness. She was a daughter of the late John Davis, and sister-in-law of the late J. D. Phinney, K. C. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Phinney, a half-sister, Miss Belle Davis, and a half-brother, Geo. H. Davis of Denver, Col.

Night classes were begun at the High School last evening with large attendance. There are seventy-four applicants in the domestic science department, and it has been decided to procure an additional teacher.

The city council last night decided to assess $22,000 for patriotic purposes.

POLICE COURT

Three arrests were made since yesterday by the local police. All three prisoners were charged with drunkenness. In the police court this morning they were fined $8 each or three months in jail.

LOCAL NEWS

DEATH OF A CHILD.

Many will sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Tighe in the death of their infant son, John, which took place at the residence of his parents, 478 Main street, on Tuesday.

HAD SLEIGH DRIVE.

A party of young folks numbering about forty enjoyed a sleigh drive to Turbun last evening. On their return to the city they drove to the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. Fairweather in Metcalfe street, where refreshments were served and a very enjoyable program of music and games were carried out.

MAY PLAY IN SUSSEX.

The management of the Sussex hockey senior team is negotiating with the St. John hockey team management for a game to be played in Sussex next week. While arrangements have not been completed, the St. John boys expect to make the trip. The present train service will enable them to leave and return on the same evening. A large number of rooters are expected to accompany the team.

AT THE BOYS' CLUB.

The Philathea Class of German Street Baptist church gave an entertainment at the Boys' Club last evening, which was greatly enjoyed by all present. S. H. Davis presided and the programme was as follows:—Chorus, Tipperary; reading, Miss Beatrice Fleet; solo, Miss Hattie Dushart; reading, Mr. Nobile; solo, Miss Audrie Cross; reading, Miss Beatrice Hatfield; chorus; solo, Mrs. Compiton; reading, Mr. Davis; reading, Miss Dewolf.

MRS. JOHN S. SMITH.

Many in this city and many in Kings county will learn with regret of the sudden death of Mrs. John S. Smith, which took place this morning at her home at Lakeside, N. B., following an illness which did not extend over a week. Mrs. Smith was seventy-four years of age and was a well known resident of Kings county. Following her marriage she lived in this city, but soon afterwards she moved to Lakeside. Besides her husband she leaves one son, Arthur, of Boston, and one daughter, Mrs. Walter Alexander of Sussex. Two sisters also survive. The funeral will take place on Saturday morning from her late residence and interment will be made in Titusville cemetery.

The Man In The Street

So far, the evidence goes to show that the ground hog was right in his weather forecast.

If it takes Canada three months to enlist one infantry unit, how long would it take Canada to win the war?

Ain't it pretty nearly time to decide whether the daylight saving plan is to be local, epidemic, or universal?

May Be Waiting Yet.

The khaki-clad individual who entrusted a stranger with a two dollar bill to buy him some bottled goods and then waited an hour at the corner of Union and Charlotte streets this morning is entitled to be classed with the optimists.

For the benefit of others who may be sharing the ideas entertained by a young man and young woman who drifted into the registry office the other day, the staff of that office wishes it distinctly understood that they neither issue marriage licenses nor perform marriage ceremonies.

The addition of domestic science to the normal school curriculum may make the students more efficient teachers, but less likely to remain teachers. The bachelors will be watching for the new crop of graduates.

A million women have taken men's jobs in the old country. Before the war they got the wages without the jobs.

A local soldier who approves of the suggestion that no soldier be discharged from the army after the war until he gets a job. He says he does not mind Riverside Drive. Two women in Mr. his life.

Another chap in uniform is strong for the poultry farm plan for returned soldiers. He thinks that any man who can face the Huns need not be afraid of tacking the hen.

Generous Contribution.

The Man-in-the-Street is informed that Mr. Gutrocks has raised the rent of his tenement, this year, in order that his wife may be able to make a generous contribution towards the cost of an entirely new outfit of living. Such disinterested philanthropy cannot but excite the gratitude of the people, who will cheerfully pay more rent in order to learn why more rent should be paid.

Willie's Will.

Evidently stirred by deep emotion, an unknown correspondent sends a plaintive epistle as follows:—

Dear Sir:—

When you have become proficient in finding the needle in the haystack, solving the riddle of the universe, invented perpetual motion, discovered a bit of sidewalk in the city properly cleared of snow, then try to find a St. John restaurant where they serve hot sauce pie hot and the waitress can bring you your saucer of coffee without slopping so much of it up into the cup.

Yours truly,
HOMELESS WILLIE.

GRATEFUL FOR MONEY SENT

Miss Deinstdt Writes From Arc-En-Barrois

Nurse Speaks of Uses to Which it is Being Put — Demands Are Many—Some of the Cases

In a recent letter from Miss Hazel L. Deinstdt of this city, who is serving as a volunteer nurse, paying her own expenses, at Arcen Barrois, Hauts, Savoie, near Verdun, France, she acknowledges receipt of $115 raised by Mrs. Comeau and other ladies, and reports how the fund is to be used. Extracts from her letter are as follows:

That certainly was a splendid letter with all that money! We were delighted to have it for New Year, as the men here make much more of New Year than they do of Christmas, and we did so want them to enjoy it. I got each of them some nice little present that would be of use to them in the trenches. I am becoming quite adept now at picking out the right and useful thing, and I wish you could see how they appreciate what we give them. They presented to me a huge bouquet of flowers.

"On Monday I take charge of Salle Foch again, but have a good 'pro' to assist me. I am saving the bulk of the money to use there. There is a man here who will be terribly crippled if some one doesn't give him a leg. Unless another comes to his rescue, some of your money will have to go for that; but I do want to keep it for a general fund to buy things as they are needed.

We have a man shot through the mouth and jaw, so that much of what he eats falls out. However, he loves raw eggs and can manage them beautifully, so I have been buying a dozen every second day for him. These he eats besides the four a day the hospital gives him. That sounds extravagant, but it is not, as he has horrible chest trouble, and I have seen him eat them. These he eats besides the four a day the hospital gives him. That sounds extravagant, but it is not, as he has horrible chest trouble, and I have seen him eat them. These he eats besides the four a day the hospital gives him. That sounds extravagant, but it is not, as he has horrible chest trouble, and I have seen him eat them.

I have a man very ill with pneumonia who needs extra, too. When the men leave to return to the trenches, they need so many things the government does not supply, and which they really cannot afford to buy, that we are constantly helping them out in this way.

I shall tell you later just how the money is spent; but I fear some of it will have to go to the operating table, as that is so expensive to keep up. However, I do hope to keep it as an emergency fund.

We all appreciate very much the kindness of the people at home sending this money to us. It is necessary for us to be able to give the men all they need and so richly deserve. I do want everyone in the city to know that there is, as nothing is too good for them. Thank Mrs. Comeau and all those who have made it possible for me to have these brave men so nicely comforted and so much cheered—I myself have little time for letter writing. We are full up at present and as busy as can be, but I never felt better in my life, so don't worry.

WEDDINGS TODAY

J. L. Feeney and Miss Marie Ready Married—Cathedral Wedding

A wedding of much local interest took place this morning in St. Rose's church, Fairville, when nuptial mass was celebrated at 10 o'clock by Rev. Father Collins and Miss Marie Ready of Fairville and J. L. Feeney of Fredericton were united in matrimony.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a tailored suit of tulle and brocade with shadowed silver lace hat, and white fox fur. She carried a bouquet of orchids and lily of the valley. She was given in marriage by her uncle, Louis Ready of Lancaster Heights. Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Feeney drove to the residence of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. James Ready, Manawagami road, where a tempting wedding breakfast was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Feeney left on the 7 o'clock train for a honeymoon trip including Montreal, New York and Boston.

The groom holds a responsible position on the government engineering staff.

Only the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends were invited to the wedding, owing to the death of the groom's mother a few months ago. Among the out-of-town guests, however, besides the groom's father, were his two sisters, the Misses Feeney, and Gregory and Gerald Feeney, brothers.

Miss Florence McDonald of Boston, formerly a classmate of the bride at St. Francis Xavier College, was also present and presided at the organ during the ceremony and played the wedding march. Miss Marie Donahue of Halifax, also a close friend and former classmate of Mrs. Feeney, was a guest as well.

Numerous beautiful gifts testifying to the popularity of the young people and best wishes follow them for a happy life in their new home.

Viger-Maske

The Cathedral was the scene of an increasing event this morning when, at seven o'clock Rev. Miles P. Howland united in marriage with nuptial mass Miss Annabel Maske, of God's Station, and Joseph E. Viger, of this city, but formerly of Notre Dame, Kent county.

The bride was neatly attired in a blue tailored suit with black picture hat and carried a white prayer book. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Todd acted as witnesses.

After the ceremony the party drove to Coldbrook where a wedding luncheon was served at the home of Mrs. J. T. Newman, sister of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Viger will reside in Coldbrook.

MAJOR CORBET HAS BEEN PROMOTED

Given Rank of Lieutenant-Colonel and Field Ambulance Becomes No. 16

Information was received in the city this morning to the effect that the Field Ambulance Depot, West St. John, under command of Major G. G. Corbet, had been converted into a field ambulance unit, and that No. 16 had been allotted to it. Hence in the future the unit will be known as the 16th Field Ambulance, C.E.F. Major Corbet of the unit has been promoted to lieutenant-colonel and Major Skinner has been appointed second in command.

The unit when first authorized, was known as the 8th Field Ambulance C. E. F., but when it was decided not to form the fifth Canadian division this unit was converted into a depot from which drafts were to be sent overseas and the complement of the unit, which at the time of authorization was 108 men including officers, was increased to 200 men, including all ranks. Lieutenant-Colonel Corbet is receiving congratulations today on his well-merited promotion.

DELIGHTFUL EVENING.

A very large and appreciative audience assembled at the home of Mrs. E. J. Sayre in Queen Square last evening and greatly enjoyed a drawing room concert given by Valcuter Chapter, L. O. D. E. A delightful programme was carried out. Among those taking part were Capt. P. D. Brown, Miss Louise Anderson, Miss Emeline Climo, Miss Valde Penton, A. J. Mannon and a quartette, including Misses Brown, Climo, Carmichael and Thompson. There were piano numbers by Miss Dorothy Bayard, Miss Marion Crickshank, French recitations by Miss Mary White and a violin solo by Mrs. T. Gunn. The evening was a great success. Supper was served to those who participated in the programme and members of the Valcuter Chapter.

OAK HALL SCOVIL BROS., LIMITED ST. JOHN, N. B.

Look at the Question From All Sides.

When you purchase an outfit, or even one piece of furniture, which you naturally expect to use for several years, there are many things to consider besides the price. Quality of material and finish, strength of construction and style of design are very important, and to obtain these you have to rely, to a considerable extent, upon the dealer from whom you buy.

Every article we show in our store is purchased with these considerations in view, and we never offer an article simply because it is cheap.

We have many lines just as moderate in price as can be found anywhere, but in all cases have satisfied ourselves that each one is the best value obtainable.

If you think it over, we feel sure that you will agree that it will pay to see our stock first when you require furniture.
